LOCAL RULE 9014-1

Motion Calendar and Procedure

*****

(f) Amount of Notice.

(3) Orders Shortening Time. In appropriate circumstances and for good cause shown, the Court may order that the amount of notice of a hearing on a motion be shortened to fewer than fourteen (14) calendar days. Unless otherwise ordered, when the time for service is shortened to fewer than fourteen (14) calendar days, no written opposition is required.

If the motion for which notice is to be shortened has not been filed, a copy of it or a summary shall be filed with the application as a separate exhibit document. If the motion or a summary cannot be filed as an exhibit, the application shall describe the motion with particularity and explain why the moving party is unable either to file the motion or file it as an exhibit to the application.
