The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Debtor filed opposition. If it appears at the hearing that disputed, material, factual issues remain to be resolved, then a later evidentiary hearing will be set. LOCAL BANKR. R. 9014-1(g).

DISCUSSION

MOTION TO DISMISS CASE
12-4-19 [29]

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor (Pro Se) and Office of the United States Trustee on December 4, 2019. By the court's calculation, 35 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Debtor filed opposition. If it appears at the hearing that disputed, material, factual issues remain to be resolved, then a later evidentiary hearing will be set. LOCAL BANKR. R. 9014-1(g).

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that:

1. the debtor, Judith (Judi) Beverly Hart ("Debtor"), is $2,273.64 delinquent in plan payments.
2. the Debtor has not made progress in prosecuting the case since she filed an incomplete plan on November 14, 2019.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $2,273.64 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $1,136.82 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Debtor is also not prosecuting the case in a timely manner. Since her prior plan, Debtor has now filed a Second Amended Plan on December 10, 2019. Dckt. 34. That plan is an improvement over the prior one, but it still lacks a proposed monthly payment, a plan term, and a dividend to unsecured claims, among other deficiencies. The failure to propose a confirmable plan here is unreasonable delay. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

3. 19-24307-C-13 SUSAN DEAN CONTINUED MOTION TO DISMISS
DPC-2 Matthew De Caminada CASE
10-16-19 [23]

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on October 16, 2019. By the court's calculation, 35 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Debtor filed opposition. If it appears at the hearing that disputed, material, factual issues remain to be resolved, then a later evidentiary hearing will be set. LOCAL BANKR. R. 9014-1(g).

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Susan Marie Dean (“Debtor”), has not filed a new plan since the Trustee’s objection to the prior plan was sustained on September 26, 2019.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on November 2, 2019. Dckt. 27. Debtor states she received new employment in late August and intends to file a new plan before the hearing on this Motion.

NOVEMBER 20, 2019 HEARING

At the November 20, 2019, hearing the court continued that hearing at the request of the parties. Civil Minutes, Dckt. 30.

DISCUSSION

Debtor did not file a Plan or a Motion to Confirm a Plan following the court's denial of confirmation to Debtor's prior plan on September 26, 2019. A review of the docket shows that Debtor has not yet filed a new plan or a motion to confirm a plan. That is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Unfortunately for Debtor, a promise to file an amended plan is not evidence that resolves the Motion.

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an opposition on December 18, 2019, arguing that an amended plan would be filed to address the Motion. Dckt. 65.

DISCUSSION

On December 17, 2019, debtor filed a first amended plan and corresponding motion to confirm that plan. Dckts. 60, 62. However, there are other grounds for dismissal that debtor has not addressed.

Debtor did not provide either a tax transcript or a federal income tax return with attachments for the most recent pre-petition tax year for which a return was required. See 11 U.S.C. § 521(e)(2)(A)(i); FED. R. BANKR. P. 4002(b)(3). That is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Debtor filed an opposition on December 24, 2019. Dckt. 33. Indicating two payments of $1,779.00 were already made, and another will be made December 26, 2019.

TRUSTEE'S RESPONSE

Trustee filed a response on December 27, 2019, arguing that while a payment is pending for December 26, 2019, that scheduling payments for the 26th of the month will cause regular delinquencies since payment is due the 25th.

2. Debtor has not filed a motion to confirm plan.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an opposition on December 19, 2019. Dckt. 29. Debtor states that the tax returns for 2015 through 2018 have been filed and provided to the Trustee. Debtor states further than an amended plan and corresponding motion to confirm is being prepared and will be filed prior to the date of the hearing.

DISCUSSION

A review of the docket shows no amended plan has been filed yet. Unfortunately for Debtor a promise to file a plan is not evidence that resolves the Motion. Failure to confirm a plan is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

1. the debtor, Yadanira Vizcarra ("Debtor"), is $1,200 delinquent plan payments.
2. Because unsecured claims were $5,851.63 greater than scheduled, the plan will complete in 66 months.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an "Objection" opposing Trustee's Motion on December 26, 2019. Dckt. 23. Debtor's counsel argues claims came in lower than anticipated, and the plan completes by paying $595.35 for sixty months.

TRUSTEE'S RESPONSE

Trustee filed a Response on December 27, 2019, arguing that the total claims are $26,405.63, not $24,876 as Debtor argues. Trustee notes Debtor has not actually provided analysis for how the plan mathematically completes in 60 months.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $1,200 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Additionally, Debtor has not shown that the plan mathematically completes in 60 days—Debtor not explaining this or filing a modified plan is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $18,100.00 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $3,900.00 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter.

Below is the court's tentative ruling, rendered on the assumption that there will be no opposition to the motion. If there is opposition presented, the court will consider the opposition and whether further hearing is proper pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(2)(C).

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(2) Motion—Hearing Required.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on October 3, 2019. By the court's calculation, 48 days' notice was provided. 14 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss was properly set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(2). Debtor, creditors, the Chapter 13 Trustee, the U.S. Trustee, and any other parties in interest were not required to file a written response or opposition to the motion. If any of these potential respondents appear at the hearing and offer opposition to the motion, the court will set a briefing schedule and a final hearing unless there is no need to develop the record further. If no opposition is offered at the hearing, the court will take up the merits of the motion. At the hearing -----
-----.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that:

1. the debtor, Earl Lee Miller ("Debtor"), is delinquent $41,925 in plan payments.
2. Debtor's prior plan was denied confirmation on October 1, 2019, and no amended plan has been filed.

NOVEMBER HEARING

At the November 20, 2019, hearing the Debtor reported the worker's compensation claim was resolved, allowing funding of the plan. Trustee concurred with a continuance. Civil Minutes, Dckt. 70.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $41,925 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $13,975 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Debtor did not file a Plan or a Motion to Confirm a Plan following the court's denial of confirmation to Debtor's prior plan on October 1, 2019. A review of the docket shows that Debtor has not yet filed a new plan or a motion to confirm a plan. Debtor offers no explanation for the delay in setting a plan for confirmation. That is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 4, 2019. By the court's calculation, 35 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Debtor filed opposition. If it appears at the hearing that disputed, material, factual issues remain to be resolved, then a later evidentiary hearing will be set. LOCAL BANKR. R. 9014-1(g).

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Eugene Tancredi Nieri ("Debtor"), is $20,219.69 delinquent in plan payments.

DEBTOR'S RESPONSE

Debtor filed an Opposition on December 23, 2019. Dckt. 45. Debtor argues he fell delinquent because of lost employment, and represents a modified plan will be filed before the hearing.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $20,219.69 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $5,073.23 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

While Debtor argues a modified plan will be filed to address the delinquency, a review of the docket shows no plan was filed.

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.^{FN.1}

FN. 1. In reviewing the court's files, the court notes that the Debtor, with the assistance of his current counsel, have filed a series of prior Chapter 13 cases that have resulted in dismissals. Case 17-27037, filed October 25, 2017, and dismissed February 21, 2019, the Chapter 13 Trustee seeking dismissal due to Debtor being $84,344.92 in default in payments (February 20, 2019 Civil Minutes); Case No. 13-21559, filed and dismissed August 15, 2016, the Chapter 13 Trustee seeking dismissal due to Debtor being $81,900 delinquent in Plan payments (August 10, 2016 Civil Minutes); Case No. 12-31702 filed June 21, 2012, and dismissed October 22, 2012, with the Trustee seeking dismissal because the Debtor did not qualify for Chapter 13 based on the amount of debt, 11 U.S.C. § 109(e), (October 17, 2012 Civil Minutes); and Case No. 12-22932 filed February 15, 2012, and dismissed May 17, 2012, with the Trustee requesting dismissal due to Debtor's failure to comply with the eligibility requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 109(e).

A review of the Chapter 13 Trustee's Final Reports in each of the prior Chapter 13 cases disclose that Debtor made payments to the Trustees in the prior cases as follows:

| Case | Amount Paid by Debtor | Amount Refunded to Debtor |
|---------------------|---|---------------------------|
| 12-22932, Dckt. 46 | $9,300.00 | $2,748.36 |
| 12-31702, Dckt. 60 | $13,100.00 | $0.00 |
| 13-21559, Dckt. 49 | $177,450.00 | $0.00 |
| | Of the above, $128,976.02 was paid to Nationwide Mortgage, $13,168.79 paid to the Internal Revenue Service on its secured and priority claim, and $18,480.00 paid to Western Federal Union | |
| 17-27037, Dckt. 144 | $99,700.00 | $2,989.00 |
| | Of the above, $1,220.89 was paid to Ally Financial and $87,971.39 was paid to Nationstar Mortgage | |

Clearly, over the past almost decade, Debtor has made significant plan payments. However, looking at the Plan in this case (Dckt. 47) the arrearage on the class 1 Claim, secured by Debtor's residence is ($244,947.33). When Debtor stated this series of Chapter 13 cases, the secured claim arrearage provided for in his plan was "only" ($88,773.95). Though paying more than $200,000 on the secured claim, the arrearage has almost tripled.

In the current case, the Internal Revenue Service has filed its claim for ($280,191.05), which is stated to consist of ($102,266.89) secured claim, ($103,881.31) priority, and ($74,042.85) as a general unsecured claim. Proof of Claim No. 5-1.

When Debtor began his bankruptcy filing odyssey in 2012, the Internal Revenue Service claim was only ($119,808.38), consisting of ($17,902) secured claim, ($94,928.77), and ($6,977.28) general unsecured claim. 12-22932; Proof pf Claim 3-1. During this period, Debtor's tax obligations to the Internal Revenue Service has increased 150%.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on December 23, 2019. Dckt. 56. The Opposition represents a new plan will be filed to provide for the priority portion of the FTB's claim.

DISCUSSION

The confirmed plan provides that priority claims will be paid in full. However, Debtor has not provided for the priority portion of the Franchise Tax Board's claim, which totals $2,669.88.

While Debtor represents a modified plan will be filed to provide for the priority claim, a review of the docket shows no plan has been filed.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Melony Owens ("Debtor"), is $570.00 delinquent in plan payments.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on December 11, 2019, representing the delinquency will be cured by the hearing date. Dckt. 100.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $570.00 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $190.00 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Unfortunately for Debtor, a promise to pay is not evidence that resolves the Motion.

DISCUSSION

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on December 20, 2019. Dckt. 45. The Opposition represents that the delinquency, which was caused by a reduction in work hours, will be cured. Debtor asserts the delinquency can be cured by savings from not making payments, and from family contributions.

DISCUSSION

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $8,071.22 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $2,016.58 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

MOTION TO DISMISS CASE
12-9-19 [57]

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 9, 2019. By the court's calculation, 30 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Debtor filed opposition. If it appears at the hearing that disputed, material, factual issues remain to be resolved, then a later evidentiary hearing will be set. LOCAL BANKR. R. 9014-1(g).

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtors, Anthony William Aitken and Amalia Elise Aitken ("Debtor"), are $6,644.00 delinquent in plan payments.

DEBTOR'S REPLY

Debtor filed a Reply on January 2, 2020. Dckt. 61. Debtor proposes paying $2,215.00 before the hearing and making payments of $339.16 for twelve months to cure the delinquency.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $6,644.00 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $2,216.00 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

While Debtor proposes curing the delinquency in increased payments, there is no explanation of where that additional monies will come from given that all Debtor's disposable income is already provided into the plan. Where Debtor has already fallen delinquent several months' payments, it appears expenses cannot be further reduced.

Additionally, the proposed repayment is a change to the plan terms which would need to be made by filing a modified plan.

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

Unfortunately for Debtor, a promise to pay is not evidence that resolves the Motion.

Debtor is $17,617.70 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $3,523.60 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Unfortunately a promise to pay is not evidence that resolves the Motion.

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter.

Below is the court's tentative ruling, rendered on the assumption that there will be no opposition to the motion. If there is opposition presented, the court will consider the opposition and whether further hearing is proper pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(2)(C).

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(2) Motion—Hearing Required.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 17, 2019. By the court's calculation, 22 days' notice was provided. 14 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss was properly set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(2). If any of these potential respondents appear at the hearing and offer opposition to the motion, the court will set a briefing schedule and a final hearing unless there is no need to develop the record further. If no opposition is offered at the hearing, the court will take up the merits of the motion. At the hearing -----
-----.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that:

1. the debtor, Robert Munoz ("Debtor"), is $1,349.00 delinquent in plan payments.
2. Debtor did not appear at the Meeting of Creditors on December 12, 2019.
3. Debtor did not provide either a tax transcript or a federal income tax return with attachments for the most recent pre-petition tax year.
4. Debtor has not provided business documents required by 11 U.S.C. § 521.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $1,349.00 delinquent in plan payments, having paid nothing to date. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Debtor did not appear at the Meeting of Creditors held pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 341. Attendance is mandatory. 11 U.S.C. § 343. Failure to appear at the Meeting of Creditors is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors and is cause to dismiss the case. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Debtor did not provide either a tax transcript or a federal income tax return with attachments for the most recent pre-petition tax year for which a return was required. See 11 U.S.C. § 521(e)(2)(A)(i); FED. R. BANKR. P. 4002(b)(3). That is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Debtor has failed to timely provide Trustee with business documents including:

- A. Questionnaire,
- B. Two years of tax returns,
- C. Six months of profit and loss statements,
- D. Six months of bank account statements, and
- E. Proof of license and insurance or written statement that no such documentation exists.

11 U.S.C. §§ 521(e)(2)(A)(i), 704(a)(3), 1106(a)(3), 1302(b)(1), 1302(c); FED. R. BANKR. P. 4002(b)(2) & (3). Debtor is required to submit those documents and cooperate with Trustee. 11 U.S.C. § 521(a)(3). Without Debtor submitting all required documents, the court and Trustee are unable to determine if the Plan is feasible, viable, or complies with 11 U.S.C. § 1325. That is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

MOTION TO DISMISS CASE
12-11-19 [125]

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 28, 2019. By the court's calculation, 28 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Debtor filed opposition. If it appears at the hearing that disputed, material, factual issues remain to be resolved, then a later evidentiary hearing will be set. LOCAL BANKR. R. 9014-1(g).

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, William John Herkel and Tonya Mae Herkel ("Debtor"), are $1,200.00 delinquent in plan payments.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on December 16, 2019, arguing that the Debtor did not notice the automatic TFS payments were not going through, and that the delinquency will be cured before the hearing. Dckt. 129.

In the Opposition, Debtor states that Debtor did not know that their June, July, and August 2019 TFS payments were not processed. This is curious, as Debtor appears to be stating that in Debtor's good faith prosecution of this case, Debtor did not notice when checking their bank account statement, they did not see that monies had not be transferred out of Debtor's account for the monthly TFS payment.

In the Declaration filed with the Opposition, Debtor states under penalty of perjury:

3. We have set up our monthly payments to the trustee to be automatically withdrawn each month through TFS. It was not until we received the trustee's motion to dismiss that a couple of months had been missed.

Dckt. 130.

It is not credible that Debtor did not know that the plan payments were not being made from Debtor's bank account. Rather, it appears that Debtor took advantage of the payments not being made and forced the Trustee to bring this Motion for owning up to the ongoing defaults.

At the hearing, Debtor's counsel stated XXXXXXXXXX

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $1,200.00 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $600.00 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Donald R Ulicny ("Debtor"), is $11,496 delinquent in plan payments.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on December 24, 2019, arguing that the delinquency is only $4,664. As to that, Debtor explains a modified plan is necessary to address unanticipated expenses, increased tax payments, and an increased employee benefit plan contribution.

TRUSTEE'S REPLY

Trustee filed a Reply December 27, 2019, showing that Debtor is still $9,164 delinquent in plan payments.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $9,164.00 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $2,332.00 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

A review of the docket shows no modified plan was filed.

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

THRU #37

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter. If the court's tentative ruling becomes its final ruling, then the court will make the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

The Order to Show Cause was served by the Clerk of the Court on Debtor (pro se), and Chapter 13 Trustee as stated on the Certificate of Service on December 18, 2019. The court computes that 21 days' notice has been provided.

The court issued an Order to Show Cause based on Debtor's failure to pay the required fees in this case: $77.00 due on December 9, 2019.

The Order to Show Cause is sustained, and the case is dismissed.

The court's docket reflects that the default in payment that is the subject of the Order to Show Cause has not been cured. The following filing fees are delinquent and unpaid by Debtor: $77.00.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Order to Show Cause having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Order to Show Cause is sustained, no other sanctions are issued pursuant thereto, and the case is dismissed.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2019, hearing is required.

The Order to Show Cause was served by the Clerk of the Court on Debtor (pro se) and Chapter 13 Trustee as stated on the Certificate of Service on November 29, 2019. The court computes that 40 days' notice has been provided.

The court issued an Order to Show Cause based on Debtor's failure to pay the required fees in this case: $77.00 due on November 12, 2019.

The Order to Show Cause is discharged, and the bankruptcy case shall proceed in this court.

The court's docket reflects that the default in payment that is the subject of the Order to Show Cause has been cured.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Order to Show Cause having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Order to Show Cause is discharged, no sanctions ordered, and the bankruptcy case shall proceed in this court.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2019 hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 9, 2019. By the court's calculation, 30 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the respondent and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties' pleadings.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Damian Avalos ("Debtor"), is $2,224.00 delinquent in plan payments.

Debtor is $2,224.00 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $1,112.00 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

FINAL RULINGS

DPC-4 Peter Macaluso

MOTION TO DISMISS CASE
12-11-19 [72]

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2019, hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 11, 2019. By the court's calculation, 28 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

Upon review of the Motion and supporting pleadings, and the files in this case, the court has determined that oral argument will not be of assistance in ruling on the Motion. The defaults of the non-responding parties in interest are entered.

The Motion to Dismiss is denied without prejudice.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), filed this Motion seeking dismissal of the case on the grounds debtor is $13,913.00 delinquent in plan payments.

Debtor filed an Opposition and supporting Declaration explaining the delinquency was the result of a separation between Debtor and his non-filing spouse. Dckts. 76, 83. Debtor represents a modified plan will be filed to cure the delinquency.

FILING OF MODIFIED PLAN

Debtor filed a Modified Plan and Motion to Confirm on December 31, 2019. Dckt. 78, 81. The court has reviewed the Motion to Confirm the Modified Plan and the Declaration in support filed by Debtor. Dckt. 80. The Motion appears to comply with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9013 (stating grounds with particularity), and the Declaration appears to provide testimony as to facts to support confirmation based upon Debtor's personal knowledge. FED. R. EVID. 601, 602.

Debtor appearing to be actively prosecuting this case, the Motion to Dismiss is denied without prejudice.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by the Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is denied without prejudice.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2019, hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 3, 2019. By the court's calculation, 36 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the respondent and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties' pleadings.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Karl Adam Mansfield ("Debtor"), is $5,140.22 delinquent in plan payments.

Debtor is $5,140.22 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $2,498.37 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13

Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Darnell N Robinson ("Debtor"), is $5,758.30 delinquent in plan payments.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that:

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $200 delinquent in plan payments, which represents one month the plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

not yet filed a new plan or a motion to confirm a plan. Debtor offers no explanation for the delay in setting a plan for confirmation. That is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

MOTION TO DISMISS CASE
12-3-19 [26]

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2019, hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 3, 2019. By the court's calculation, 36 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the respondent and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties' pleadings.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Lane Christian Milde and Denise Renee Milde (“Debtor”), is $21,266.96 delinquent in plan payments

Debtor is $21,266.96 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $5,454.62 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

Upon review of the Motion and supporting pleadings, and the files in this case, the court has determined that oral argument will not be of assistance in ruling on the Motion. The defaults of the non-responding parties in interest are entered.

The Motion to Dismiss is denied without prejudice.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), filed this Motion seeking dismissal of the case on the grounds debtor is $2,518.00 delinquent in plan payments.

Debtor filed an opposition on December 19, 2019, arguing that a modified plan would be filed to address the delinquency. Dckt. 38.

FILING OF MODIFIED PLAN

Debtor filed a Modified Plan and Motion to Confirm on December 19, 2019. Dckt. 40, 44. The court has reviewed the Motion to Confirm the Modified Plan and the Declaration in support filed by Debtor. The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the respondent and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties' pleadings.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Amy A Loafea ("Debtor"), is $3,088.00 delinquent in plan payments.

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13

Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties' pleadings.

The Motion to Dismiss is denied without prejudice.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that:

1. the debtor, Jarnail Singh Minhas ("Debtor"), is $1,223.42 delinquent in plan payments.
2. Debtor has not filed a new plan since the prior plan was denied confirmation on November 5, 2019.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on December 26, 2019. Dckt. 26. The Opposition asserts that Debtor has scheduled his payments for the 25th of the month, which causes delay as the payment is processing—but, that the payment was made. Exhibit A is a printout showing the payment receipt. Dckt. 39.

Debtor asserts further that a new motion to confirm the plan filed September 9, 2019, was filed.

DISCUSSION

Debtor has shown evidence that the delinquency was cured, and that the filed Chapter 13 Plan has been set for confirmation. Dckts. 32, 39. While the confirmation of that plan was previously denied, the Trustee's opposing grounds were unrelated to the terms of the plan.

Debtor appearing to be actively prosecuting the case, the Motion is denied without prejudice.

Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that:

1. the debtors, Dennis Paul Campbell and Kim Cheri Campbell ("Debtor"), are $3,421.92 delinquent in plan payments.
2. Because mortgage arrearages were almost $15,000 greater than scheduled, than plan will complete in 78 months.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $3,421.92 delinquent in plan payments, which represents slightly more than one month of the plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Because mortgage arrearages were almost $15,000 greater than scheduled, than plan will complete in 78 months. Extending beyond 60 months violates the Bankruptcy Code and the confirmed plan's own terms. Debtor's failure to file a modified plan is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

MOTION TO DISMISS CASE
12-3-19 [46]

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2019, hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 3, 2019. By the court's calculation, 36 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the respondent and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties' pleadings.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtors, Brian Allen Stacy and Tracee Lyn Stacy ("Debtor"), are $12,98.78 delinquent in plan payments.

Debtor is $12,98.78 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $3,979.82 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

Upon review of the Motion and supporting pleadings, and the files in this case, the court has determined that oral argument will not be of assistance in ruling on the Motion. The defaults of the non-responding parties in interest are entered.

The Motion to Dismiss is denied without prejudice.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), filed this Motion seeking dismissal because debtors, Octavio Gonzalez Saenz and Diana Carolina Saenz ("Debtor"), are $9,041.90 delinquent in plan payments.

Debtor filed a Reply on December 17, 2019, representing a modified plan would be filed to address the delinquency. Dckt. 70.

FILING OF MODIFIED PLAN

Debtor filed a Modified Plan and Motion to Confirm on January 3, 2020. Dckt. 73, 75. The court has reviewed the Motion to Confirm the Modified Plan and the Declaration in support filed by Debtor. Dckt. 77. The Motion appears to comply with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9013 (stating grounds with particularity), and the Declaration appears to provide testimony as to facts to support confirmation based upon Debtor's personal knowledge. FED. R. EVID. 601, 602.

Debtor appearing to be actively prosecuting this case, the Motion to Dismiss is denied without prejudice.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

MOTION TO DISMISS CASE
12-9-19 [38]

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2019, hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, and Office of the United States Trustee on December 9, 2019. By the court's calculation, 30 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the respondent and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties' pleadings.

The Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Victor Antonio Celis and Rachel Diane Celis ("Debtor"), are $6,390.45 delinquent in plan payments.

Debtor is $6,390.45 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $2,130.15 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

Based on the foregoing, cause exists to dismiss this case. The Motion is granted, and the case is dismissed.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Dismiss is granted, and the case is dismissed.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2020, hearing is required.

The Motion to Dismiss is dismissed without prejudice, and the bankruptcy case shall proceed in this court.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having filed an Ex Parte Motion to Dismiss the pending Motion on January 3, 2020, Dckt. 233; no prejudice to the responding party appearing by the dismissal of the Motion; the Chapter 13 Trustee having the right to request dismissal of the motion pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(2) and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and 7041; and the dismissal being consistent with the opposition filed by Boatamo Mosupyoe (“Debtor”); the Ex Parte Motion is granted, the Chapter 13 Trustee’s Motion is dismissed without prejudice, and the court removes this Motion from the calendar.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 Case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”) having been presented to the court, the Chapter 13 Trustee having requested that the Motion itself be dismissed pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(2) and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and 7041, Dckt. 233, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Chapter 13 Trustee’s Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 Case is dismissed without prejudice, and the bankruptcy case shall proceed in this court.

CASE
10-15-19 [124]

Final Ruling: No appearance at the January 8, 2020, hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Hearing Not Required.

By the court's calculation, 36 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion to Dismiss has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Debtor filed opposition. If it appears at the hearing that disputed, material, factual issues remain to be resolved, then a later evidentiary hearing will be set. LOCAL BANKR. R. 9014-1(g).

The hearing on the Motion to Dismiss is continued to January 14, 2019 at 2:00p.m.

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), seeks dismissal of the case on the basis that the debtor, Robert Ryan Stanley (“Debtor”), is $14,742.74 delinquent in plan payments.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on November 6, 2019. Dckt. 130. Debtor's counsel states that a modified plan will be filed and set for confirmation hearing once the Debtor's outstanding domestic support obligations are determined.

NOVEMBER 20, 2019 HEARING

At the November 20, 2019 hearing the court continued the hearing to afford Debtor and his counsel the opportunity to firm up whatever reorganization, if any, is possible. Civil Minutes, Dckt. 140.

SUPPLEMENTAL FILINGS

On December 31, 2019 Debtor filed his Declaration and a Business Income Spreadsheet. Dckts. 145, 146. The Declaration presents Debtor's explanation for the failures of his prior cases, and the fluctuating income he has had over the years.

DISCUSSION

Debtor is $14,742.74 delinquent in plan payments, which represents multiple months of the $8,021.91 plan payment. Before the hearing, another plan payment will be due. Failure to make plan payments is unreasonable delay that is prejudicial to creditors. 11 U.S.C. § 1307(c)(1).

The court notes that this is the Debtor's fifth Chapter 13 case this decade. His prior attempted, defaulted, and dismissed cases are:

 - b. Of the $8,765.00 paid into the Plan by Debtor, $7,221.57 was refunded to him. 16-28195; Trustee's Final Report, Dckt. 93.

Since February 9, 2011, Debtor has been represented by very knowledgeable, experienced bankruptcy counsel. During these past almost nine years, Debtor has effectively maintained a continuous non-productive Chapter 13 existence, turning a maximum plan period into what he now seeks to make into a fourteen year plan (assuming that Debtor would properly fund a five year plan in the current case).

Looking at the most recent case, 16-28195, Debtor “explained” the default in that fourth bankruptcy case of the decade and why that fourth Chapter 13 case should not be dismissed, by having his attorney argue (Debtor failing or refusing to provide testimony) that:

The debtor has been struggling to resolve business issues created when his long-time manager/bookkeeper abruptly left in June of this year. His mother has been working for him since then, and has cleaned up some of the mess left by the previous manager, but the office upheaval has contributed to the debtor falling behind in plan payments. He has also been involved in a very contentious family law matter that has taken time and resources away from his Chapter 13 case. The debtor does have jobs in various stages of completion, and believes he can bring his plan current by the date of the continued hearing on his motion to confirm plan, scheduled for November 21, 2017.

16-28195; Opposition to Motion to Dismiss, p. 2:5-12, Dckt. 65.

In his third Chapter 13 case of this decade, Debtor attempted to avoid the dismissal by modifying his Chapter 13 Plan. In that case, in his Declaration in support of confirmation, Debtor testified:

The Chapter 13 Trustee filed a Notice of Default and Application to Dismiss Case, indicating I am delinquent in my plan payments in the amount of $9,225.00 through May 2016. I operate a commercial and residential window and glass installation business. In November 2015, my company completed a subcontracting job for LPS Construction, for the renovation of a Staples store in Vacaville, California. My company, United Glass, was a sub-contractor. The general contractor on the job was LPS Construction. Large commercial jobs such as the Staples job generally pay within 60 to 90 days of submission of invoices. However, LPS Construction has still not paid the amount due, which is approximately $20,000.00. I was depending on receipt of these funds in February or March at the latest. The failure of LPS Construction to pay the amount owed caused me to fall behind in my plan payments. General contractors such as LPS Construction usually have to qualify to get awarded contracts from large corporate businesses like Staples. When Staples learned I hadn't been paid by LPS Construction, its legal department contacted me, and asked me to submit all my invoices and change orders. It looks like Staples may pay me directly, although I am not sure of that. In the meantime, I have two good commercial jobs that I signed, one of which starts on Monday, May 30. The other one is for CVS, and is larger. I expect that job will pay close to $63,000.00 over the next few months. I am confident I will be able to recommence my plan payments with the June 25, 2016 payment.

15-28558; Declaration, p. 2:5.5-22.5, Dckt. 58. Unfortunately, Debtor's confidence was good for only the short run and by September 2016 he was again in default, unable to cure the defaults, and the third bankruptcy case dismissed.

In his second Chapter 13 case this decade, Debtor and his counsel did not file any pleadings addressing his default and the Trustee seeking the dismissal of case number 13-29065. This was notwithstanding the Debtor having paid $55,403.99 into the Plan in that case. 13-29065; Trustee's Final Report, Dckt. 42.

Current, Fifth Chapter 13 Case of The Decade Proposed Modified Plan

Facing the current Motion to Dismiss the current case based on $14,742.74 in plan payment defaults as of October 15, 2019, the Debtor has responded with a proposed Modified Plan. In his Declaration in the current case, Debtor explains that his contentious divorce has dragged on for years, but he "believes" that his support obligation, due to the short duration of the marriage, "I believe that any spousal support obligation terminated years ago." Declaration, p. 2:10.5-15; Dckt. 136. The court notes the equivocal language by this non-expert Debtor witness. Either the obligation terminated long ago and has not been paid, or it has not terminated. Debtor's "belief" offers little to support his attempt to modify the Plan in the fifth Chapter 13 case.

Debtor then provides his "understanding" that there are no "permanent orders in his family law case. Id., p. 2:15-16. The court cannot understand the legal and economic significance of the Debtor's personal "understanding." Further, if there was an order requiring Debtor to make support payments for the next ten years, is it Debtor's "understanding" that it is not permanent, but only ten years "temporary?"

Debtor further testifies that he needs to prosecute legal proceedings in the family law matter, but cannot afford to do so. Thus, it appears that this long, contentious, draining family law proceeding will continue.

The one out of the ordinary, somewhat temporary event Debtor describes in his declaration is that when PG&E cut power due to fire dangers, on two occasions he lost power and phone service to Debtor's shop.

Debtor's proposed modified plan will require monthly plan payments of $9,690 for the final forty-one months of the Plan. Proposed Modified Plan, Dckt. 135 at 8. For the first seventeen months the payments are "only" $6,245.00 and then "only" $5,000 for months eighteen and nineteen of the Plan.

After nine years, four prior defaulted Chapter 13 cases and now having a "the plan payments will jump 55%, notwithstanding the substantial defaults in the significantly lower plan payment, the "fact" that the Debtor has filed a document titled "Modified Plan" and swears that he can make significantly greater plan payments in the future is not sufficient to deny the present Motion — even if it is likely to result in the Debtor's sixth bankruptcy case in this decade or the first in the new decade.

Continuance of Hearing

The Debtor's recent modified plan is set for confirmation haring on January 14, 2019. Dckt. 132. In light of Debtor's declaration, the court will continue the hearing on the Motion To Dismiss to be heard alongside the confirmation hearing.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion to Dismiss the Chapter 13 case filed by The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick (“Trustee”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that hearing on the Motion to Dismiss is continued to January 14, 2019 at 2:00p.m.
