1. 19-22106-E-7 MICHELLE FUGERE MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM
BPC-1 Julius Cherry AUTOMATIC STAY
5-16-19 [11]
THE GOLDEN 1 CREDIT UNION VS.

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court's resolution of the matter.

Below is the court's tentative ruling, rendered on the assumption that there will be no opposition to the motion. If there is opposition presented, the court will consider the opposition and whether further hearing is proper pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(2)(C).

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(2) Motion—Hearing Required.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, Chapter 7 Trustee, and Office of the United States Trustee on May 16, 2019. By the court's calculation, 14 days' notice was provided. 14 days' notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay was properly set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(2). Debtor, creditors, the Chapter 7 Trustee, the U.S. Trustee, and any other parties in interest were not required to file a written response or opposition to the motion. If any of these potential respondents appear at the hearing and offer opposition to the motion, the court will set a briefing schedule and a final hearing, unless there is no need to develop the record further. If no opposition is offered at the hearing, the court will take up the merits of the motion. At the hearing, -----.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is granted.

Golden 1 Credit Union ("Movant") seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to an asset identified as a 2017 Ford Mustang, VIN ending in 2731 ("Vehicle"). The moving party has provided the Declaration of Jesus Vasquez to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation owed by Michelle Renee Fugere (“Debtor”).

The Jesus Vasquez provides evidence that there are 8 pre-petition payments in default, with a pre-petition arrearage of $6,895.76.

On Debtor’s Statement of Intention, Debtor indicates the Vehicle will be surrendered.

DISCUSSION

From the evidence provided to the court, and only for purposes of this Motion for Relief, the debt secured by this asset is determined to be $50,965.49, as stated in the Jesus Vasquez Declaration, while the value of the Vehicle is determined to be $31,500.00, as stated in Schedules B and D filed by Debtor. Dckt. 1.

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. See J E Livestock, Inc. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (In re J E Livestock, Inc.), 375 B.R. 892 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. 137, 140 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003)) (explaining that granting relief is determined on a case-by-case basis because “cause” is not further defined in the Bankruptcy Code); In re Silverling, 179 B.R. 909 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1995), aff’d sub nom. Silverling v. United States (In re Silverling), No. CIV. S-95-470 WBS, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4332 (E.D. Cal. 1996). While granting relief for cause includes a lack of adequate protection, there are other grounds. See In re J E Livestock, Inc., 375 B.R. at 897 (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. at 140). The court maintains the right to grant relief from stay for cause when a debtor has not been diligent in carrying out his or her duties in the bankruptcy case, has not made required payments, or is using bankruptcy as a means to delay payment or foreclosure. W. Equities, Inc. v. Harlan (In re Harlan), 783 F.2d 839 (9th Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Parr (In re Ellis), 60 B.R. 432 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1985). The court determines that cause exists for terminating the automatic stay, including Debtor’s expressed intent to surrender the Vehicle. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1).

A debtor has no equity in property when the liens against the property exceed the property’s value. Stewart v. Gurley, 745 F.2d 1194, 1195 (9th Cir. 1984). Once a movant under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) establishes that a debtor or estate has no equity in property, it is the burden of the debtor or trustee to establish that the collateral at issue is necessary to an effective reorganization. 11 U.S.C. § 362(g)(2); United Sav. Ass’n of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Assocs. Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 375–76 (1988). Based upon the evidence submitted, the court determines that there is no equity in the Vehicle for either Debtor or the Estate. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2). This being a Chapter 7 case, the Vehicle is per se not necessary for an effective reorganization. See Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1981).

The court shall issue an order terminating and vacating the automatic stay to allow Movant, and its agents, representatives and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, to repossess, dispose of, or sell the asset pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law and their contractual rights, and for any purchaser, or successor to a purchaser, to obtain possession of the asset.

Request for Waiver of Fourteen-Day Stay of Enforcement

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) stays an order granting a motion for relief from the automatic stay for fourteen days after the order is entered, unless the court orders otherwise. Movant requests that the court grant relief from the Rule as adopted by the United States Supreme Court. Movant argues relief is warranted here because Debtor has expressed an intent to surrender the Vehicle.

Movant has pleaded adequate facts and presented sufficient evidence to support the court waiving the fourteen-day stay of enforcement required under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3), and this part of the requested relief is granted.

No other or additional relief is granted by the court.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by Golden 1 Credit Union (“Movant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) are vacated to allow Movant, its agents, representatives, and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, under its security agreement, loan documents granting it a lien in the asset identified as a 2017 Ford Mustang, VIN ending in 2731 (“Vehicle”), and applicable nonbankruptcy law to obtain possession of, nonjudicially sell, and apply proceeds from the sale of the Vehicle to the obligation secured thereby.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the fourteen-day stay of enforcement provided in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) is waived for cause.

No other or additional relief is granted.

PENNYMAC HOLDINGS, LLC VS.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the May 30, 2019 hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor’s Attorney, Chapter 7 Trustee, creditors, and Office of the United States Trustee on April 15, 2019. By the court’s calculation, 45 days’ notice was provided. 28 days’ notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party’s failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties’ pleadings.

The hearing on the Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is continued by prior Order (Dckt. 103) to July 11, 2019 at 10:00 a.m.

PennyMac Holdings, LLC (“Movant”) seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to David Foyil’s (“Debtor”) real property commonly known as 130 Poppy Lane, Ione, California (“Property”). Movant has provided the Declaration of Kimberley Wright to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation secured by the Property.

The Wright Declaration states that there are 4 post-petition defaults in the payments on the obligation secured by the Property, with a total of $19,592.60 in post-petition payments past due. Declaration ¶ 12, Dckt. 76 The Declaration also provides evidence that there are 12 pre-petition payments in default, with a pre-petition arrearage of $59,110.64.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on May 16, 2019. Dckt. 100. Debtor states the parties are discussing a global resolution and have stipulated to a continuance.

STIPULATION FOR CONTINUANCE

On May 14, 2019, the parties to this Contested Matter filed a Stipulation for Continuance. Dckt. 97. The court issued an Order approving of the Stipulation on May 21, 2019. Dckt. 103.

DISCUSSION

The hearing on the Motion was continued to July 11, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. by prior Order of the court on May 21, 2019. Dckt. 103.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is granted.

JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. (“Movant”) seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to an asset identified as a 2017 Mazda 6, VIN ending in 2642 (“Vehicle”). The moving party has provided the Declaration of Robert Kammeyer to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation owed by Nathanael Ronnie Palafax (“Debtor”).

The Kammeyer Declaration provides testimony that Debtor has surrendered the Vehicle.

Debtor filed a Nonopposition on April 25, 2019. Dckt. 25.

From the evidence provided to the court, and only for purposes of this Motion for Relief, the debt secured by this asset is determined to be $23,881.69, as stated in the Kammeyer Declaration, while the value of the Vehicle is determined to be $4,000.00, as stated in Schedules B and D filed by Debtor (based on Debtor’s statement the Vehicle was in an accident).

Final Ruling: No appearance at the May 30, 2019 hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor’s Attorney, Chapter 7 Trustee, and Office of the United States Trustee on April 18, 2019. By the court’s calculation, 42 days’ notice was provided. 28 days’ notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party’s failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties’ pleadings.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is granted.

Toyota Motor Credit Corporation (“Movant”) seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to an asset identified as a 2018 Toyota Highlander, VIN ending in 7387 (“Vehicle”). The moving party has provided the Declaration of Rahnae Spooner to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation owed by Kimberly S Dacoron (“Debtor”).

The Spooner Declaration provides testimony that Debtor has not made 1 post-petition payments, with a total of $745.52 in post-petition payments past due. The Declaration also provides evidence that there are 2 pre-petition payments in default, with a pre-petition arrearage of $1,491.04.

Debtor’s Statement of Intention indicates the Vehicle is to be surrendered. Dckt. 1. Furthermore, Debtor filed a Nonopposition on April 22, 2019. Dckt. 25.

DISCUSSION

From the evidence provided to the court, and only for purposes of this Motion for Relief, the debt secured by this asset is determined to be $47,304.58, as stated in the Spooner Declaration, while the value of the Vehicle is determined to be $24,995.00, as stated in Schedules B and D filed by Debtor.

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. *See J E Livestock, Inc. v. The court determines that cause exists for terminating the automatic stay, including defaults in post-petition payments that have come due and Debtor’s intent to surrender the Vehicle. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1); In re Ellis, 60 B.R. 432.

A debtor has no equity in property when the liens against the property exceed the property’s value. Stewart v. Gurley, 745 F.2d 1194, 1195 (9th Cir. 1984). Once a movant under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) establishes that a debtor or estate has no equity in property, it is the burden of the debtor or trustee to establish that the collateral at issue is necessary to an effective reorganization. 11 U.S.C. § 362(g)(2); *United Sav. This being a Chapter 7 case, the Vehicle is per se not necessary for an effective reorganization. See Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1981).

The court shall issue an order terminating and vacating the automatic stay to allow Movant, and its agents, representatives and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, to repossess, dispose of, or sell the asset pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law and their contractual rights, and for any purchaser, or successor to a purchaser, to obtain possession of the asset.

No other or additional relief is granted by the court.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by Toyota Motor Credit Corporation (“Movant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,
