

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
Eastern District of California

Honorable Ronald H. Sargis
Chief Bankruptcy Judge
Sacramento, California

August 15, 2019 at 10:00 a.m.

1. 17-22347-E-11 UNITED CHARTER LLC CONTINUED MOTION FOR RELIEF
MET-2 Jeffrey Goodrich FROM AUTOMATIC STAY
5-16-19 [391]
EAST WEST BANK VS.

HEARING ON THIS MOTION WILL BE CONDUCTED AT 10:30 A.M.
IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE HEARING ON THE MOTION TO USE CASE COLLATERAL

No Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court’s resolution of the matter.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Hearing Required.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor’s Attorney, creditors, parties requesting special notice, and Office of the United States Trustee on May 16, 2019. By the court’s calculation, 28 days’ notice was provided. 28 days’ notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party’s failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). The defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is XXXXXXXXXX.

Creditor East West Bank (“EWB” or “Movant”) seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to Debtor in Possession, United Charter LLC’s (“ΔIP”) real property located in Stockton, California, and identified as (1) 1904, 1908, 1912, 1916, 1920, 1928, 1936 Weber Avenue (“Parcel 1 Through 7”); 1881 E. Market Street (Parcel 11, B1 thru B15); 1617 (Parcel 12, A thru D), 1555 (Parcel 14 thru 16); 1531 (Parcel 17), 1523 E. Main Street (Parcel 18) (collectively, the “Property”).

Movant has provided the Declaration of L. Kurth Demoss to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation secured by the Property. Dckt. 393. The Demoss Declaration presents testimony that there is a $783,312.79 arrearage on Movant’s claim, with $338,655.87 as an advance for taxes. Id., ¶ 7.

At filing Movant’s claim was $4,522,031.36, which claim has grown to $5,214,465.67 as of April 30, 2019 due to interest and fees. Id., ¶ 9. The total post-petition payments received from ΔIP in this case have been $262,035.66. Id., ¶ 16.

The Demoss Declaration testifies that ΔIP’s monthly expenses are $9,678.00, and monthly payments owing on the two claims secured by the Property would be $39,406.91 and $7,772.81 at 7.5 percent interest (the prime rate plus a 2 percent adjustment). Id., ¶ 32.

Demoss testifies further that in his experience, banks typically lend at maximum 65 percent of the “as-is” value of the property securing such a loan. Id., ¶ 35. Thus, assuming a value of $7.2 million, Demoss states the maximum loan would be near $4,680,000.00. Id., ¶ 35.

ΔIP recently informed Movant it seeks to sell the Property by the end of the summer. Id., ¶ 46.

In the Motion, Movant states with particularity (FED. R. BANKR. P. 9013) the legal contention that there is cause for relief from stay pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) because of its legal conclusion that the claim is not adequately protected. Dckt. 391. Movant also argues relief should be granted pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) because there is no equity in the Property and the Property is not necessary for an effective reorganization. Movant also states it is seeking relief from the 14 day stay pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3).

The Motion fails to state grounds upon which relief may be granted, but instead instructs the attorney to read, analyze, and assemble for Movant the grounds from the “Notice of Hearing, this Motion, the Memorandum of Points and Authorities, the Declaration of L. Kurth DeMoss, the Exhibits to the Motion, and the pleadings on file herein, the records and files in this action, and upon such further oral and documentary evidence as may be presented.” Though not permitted, Movant appeals to have issued itself authorization to slip in more evidence at the hearing.

In addition to exempting itself from Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure that requires the grounds to be stated with particularity, Movant also exempts itself from Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9013 and the pleading requirements of Local Bankruptcy Rules 9004-1, 9004-2, and 9014-1. These require that the motion, notice, points and authorities, each declaration and the exhibits (which may be combined into one exhibit document) be filed as separate pleadings (except in limited circumstances in which the motion and points and authorities may be combined into one document).

In its Memorandum of Points and Authorities lies the actual grounds forming the basis for relief. Those grounds are as follows:

1. ΔIP’s equity position is eroding and has nearly disappeared, and EWB is not receiving adequate protection payments. Memorandum of Points and Authorities, Dckt. 395. at p. 6:22-25.

2. Δ IP has paid only $262,035.66 post-petition, with EWB's claim increasing significantly since the filing of this case on April 7, 2017. Id. at p. 7:1-18.
3. The Property is encumbered by liens totaling $6,256,704.72. Id. at p. 8:3. Δ IP asserted the Property's value was only $5,330,000.00; while creditor Wayne Bier asserts the value is $7.2 million, the Δ IP's valuation is likely the correct value. Id. at p. 8:4-9.
4. In the event the Property is valued at $7.2 million, Δ IP will not be able to confirm a Plan as the DIP simply cannot afford to pay the all of the secured claims and its regular operating expenses. Id. at p. 8:18-19.
5. The Property is not necessary for an effective reorganization because the timing and facts of the case are such that a successful reorganization of the DIP within a reasonable time is impossible. Doubts as to reorganization include the following:
 - i. This case has been pending for more than 2 years without a confirmed plan.
 - ii. A confirmable plan is likely months off as the Property would need to be valued first.
 - iii. Δ IP has inadequate capital to continue operations, demonstrated by Δ IP's failure to make regular post-petition and adequate protection payments, as well as Δ IP's history of not paying taxes.
 - iv. Δ IP's sole source of income is rents. While projected rents for March 2019 were $58,922.00, the actual rents were only $35,000.00— Δ IP has not explained this discrepancy. Additionally, there have been issues with pending leases, uncollected rent, and expiring leases.
 - v. A recent fire at the Property may have affected the Property value.
 - vi. Errors and misinformation in monthly operating reports and elsewhere indicate mismanagement, and there are no funds to pay a new property manager.
 - vii. Due to deferred maintenance and tenant turnover, it is likely that even if a plan is confirmed it will not be successful. Id., at p. 8:21-13:27.

6. Waiver of the 14 day stay is warranted because Δ IP has no equity, is not reorganizing (as evident by the lack of plan), and is not paying any Cash Collateral payments. A new Notice of sale would allow 20 to 30 days before foreclosure for an appeal to be filed. Id., at p. 14:2-5.

The relief requested in the Memorandum mirrors that in the Motion, except an additional request for attorney's fees and costs is dropped in to the Memorandum. Id., at p. 14:18-20.

DEFAULT BY DEBTOR IN POSSESSION

The Δ IP has not filed any opposition to the Motion. The Declaration of Jeffrey Goodrich was filed "in support of opposition." Dckt. 412.

While filed in "support" of an opposition, there is no position asserted. There is no request that the Motion be denied asserted by Δ IP.

Furthermore, the Local Bankruptcy Rules do not permit a Declaration to be filed as an opposition. "Motions, notices, objections, responses, replies, declarations, affidavits, other documentary evidence, exhibits, memoranda of points and authorities, other supporting documents, proofs of service, and related pleadings shall be filed as separate documents." LOCAL BANKR. R. 9004-2(c)(1). Failure to comply is cause for an appropriate sanction. LOCAL BANKR. R. 1001-1(g), 9014-1(l).

The Goodrich Declaration provides an overview of the case history and attempts to explain the delay in getting a plan confirmed. The Goodrich Declaration also admits no adequate protection payments have been made, but argues this is because Δ IP instead paid $45,000 for roofing repairs to EWB's collateral, over $80,000 of leasing commissions to increase EWB's cash collateral, over $87,000 in senior lien property taxes, and over $11,000 of storm drain fees that would have become a lien senior to EWB.

OPPOSITION OF CREDITOR WAYNE BIER

Creditor Wayne Bier holding a secured claim ("Bier") filed an Opposition on May 30, 2019. Dckt. 406. Bier asserts the Property has a value range of $7,230,000.00 - $7,730,000.00 as of an October 2018 appraisal. Bier argues the appraisal obtained by Δ IP valuing the Property at $5,330,000.00 was based on the value as of July 27, 2018, notwithstanding Δ IP's scheduled value of $7,855,018.99.

Bier does not explain how or why the court should find an appraisal, which is relied upon by Movant, obtained by the Δ IP and used in a motion to value the secured claim of Bier is not more credible and realistic than the value stuck in the schedules by the principal of the Debtor. $5,330,000.00 Appraisal Declaration, Dckt. 285.

Bier argues further a plan which re-writes the East West Bank obligation to term it out over time at an appropriate interest rate, amortized at an affordable monthly payment, and provide monthly payments to Bier could be confirmed in this case.

RAYMOND ZHANG EQUITY INTEREST HOLDER OPPOSITION

Raymond Zhang (“Zhang”) has filed his personal Opposition, as an equity interest holder in the Debtor, on May 30, 2019. Dckt. 408. Mr. Zhang is also the responsible representative of the ΔIP, with the responsibilities of acting to make sure that the ΔIP fulfill its fiduciary duties in this Chapter 11 case (there having been no trustee appointed or requested to be appointed in this case).

Zhang eschews the $5,330,000 value that he, as the responsible representative of the ΔIP, has advanced (for which the Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9011 certificates are made, for the ΔIP as the accurate value of the Property in seeking to set the value of Bier’s secured claim at less than the full amount of the obligation. The Motion to Value, Dckt. 283, was filed on September 27, 2018, a mere eight months before the filing of the present Motion for Relief From the Stay. The ΔIP has not wavered from opposing Bier’s $7,000,000.00 valuation of the Property.

Zhang, but not the ΔIP, argues further there is equity in the Property, which Property is necessary for this Chapter 11. Zhang, but not the ΔIP, argues that at the current rental rates, the ΔIP should be able to propose a plan that re-amortizes the EWB and Bier obligations at an appropriate interest rate with repayment in a reasonable period of time, and provide regular monthly payments on the claims while the property is marketed and sold to provide for the full payment of the claims in a relatively short period of time.

Conflicting Statements and Positions Asserted in Court

As noted above, the ΔIP has steered clear of asserting opposition to the Motion. It may well be that the ΔIP and Zhang have concocted a scheme for the ΔIP to continue to assert a value of $5,330,000 for the ΔIP’s battles with Bier, but have Zhang “personally” state, while wearing his equity holder hat, that the property is worth substantially more than Zhang, when wearing his hat as the responsible representative of the ΔIP, certifies to the court is the actual value of the Property.

Or, it may be that Zhang is admitting that he knowingly provided an inaccurate value in seeking to value the Bier claim at a lower amount than the full amount of the claim. Or it may be for Zhang that the more “convenient truth” when opposing the motion for relief is to, “personally, not as a representative of the ΔIP as the fiduciary of the bankruptcy estate,” adopt the higher value asserted by Bier and disputed by the ΔIP.

JUNE 13, 2019 HEARING

At the June 13, 2019 hearing, the court continued the hearing on the Motion for Relief from the Stay to afford Mr. Bier, the Debtor in Possession, and Mr. Zhang to get a plan and disclosure statement on file and this case moving forward, or in the alternative to market the Property before the Plan is confirmed. Civil Minutes, Dckt. 422.

The court addressed at the hearing the prosecution of this bankruptcy case over the past two and almost one-half years, and the lack of any Chapter 11 Plan. Given that this is really a three party dispute, with East West Bank having the senior lien on the Property at issue and Mr. Bier and Mr. Zhang being embroiled in a multi-year financial donnybrook, the only persons financially hurt by the delay have been Mr. Bier and Mr. Zhang. Neither Mr. Bier nor East West Bank sought the appointment of a trustee in this case.

The court has addressed in other ruling the failings of Mr. Zhang as the responsible representative of the Debtor in Possession (including making unauthorized payments of estate property to Mr. Bier and making additionally payments from purportedly non-bankruptcy estate monies, which may well have included monies paid from the Debtor to Mr. Zhang within the preference period) in this case. As came out in the four day evidentiary hearing on the Objection filed by the Debtor in Possession to Mr. Bier's claim, both sides have a view of the "truth" that is not consistent with federal law. As the court's findings showed, Mr. Bier's belief is that one can say whatever they want, with the federal court proceedings being merely an extensive of aggressive, no holds barred, over the top, business "negotiations." Mr. Zhang and the prebankruptcy counsel for the Debtor and Mr. Zhang demonstrated that they would say whatever they thought was in their favor, without regard to the truth, including counsel preparing a document containing knowingly false information for Mr. Bier that he knew Mr. Bier would use to obtain benefits and advantage from a foreign government.

Though having the advantage of hearing the court's findings more than a month ago and reading the tentative ruling below, Mr. Bier's counsel and the Debtor in Possession's counsel showed up with little more than "hope" that a plan would be prosecuted in this case. Though having more than a month since the court's ruling that the Debtor in Possession asserts "clarified" the claim so a plan could be proposed, nothing has been prepared. The court did not find persuasive Debtor in Possession's counsel's arguments that a plan could not be proposed providing for a sale of the property because the property was not quite ready to sell because there was fire damage and repairs would have to be made. Such provisions for reorganizing the Debtor's business through the making of the repairs, addressing any insurance claims, providing for interim payments on the East West Bank claim, the marketing of the property, and sale within a commercially reasonable time could all be part of a bankruptcy plan of reorganization. That is where the reorganization is to occur, not in the twilight of post-filing and preconfirmation, with the plan only being the capstone for the reorganization that has occurred during the bankruptcy case.

Both Mr. Bier and the Debtor in Possession requested that in lieu of granting relief the court set deadlines for them to act in prosecuting a plan. Clearly, it is not a positive sign in a Chapter 11 case whether the court has to set deadlines for parties to act reasonably to comply with federal law and protect their financial interests.

Notwithstanding Mr. Bier, the Debtor in Possession and Mr. Zhang having had more than two years to get their finances together, East West Bank agreed (in light of the phrasing of the issues by the court) to a continuance for a reasonable time for Mr. Bier, the Debtor in Possession, and Mr. Zhang to "put up or shut up" (as the court phrased it, not counsel for East West Bank).

EWB'S SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS

On August 6, 2019, EWB filed the Declaration of Mary Ellmang Tang and Exhibits thereto in support of the Motion. Dckts. 426, 427. The Tang Declaration provides testimony to authenticate correspondence between EWB and counsel for ΔIP.

Exhibit A (Dckt. 427) filed by EWB is a letter from EWB to ΔIP's counsel dated June 19, 2019. The letter makes numerous requests for information, broken up into the following categories:

1. Insurance Claim

This category requests information and evidence regarding the fire at the Property, including copies of insurance claims, estimates of repairs, and correspondence with the insurance company.

2. Tenant/Lease Issues

This category requests information and evidence regarding several new tenants at the Property, including LGN, Hotel Furniture Liquidators, White Glove, and Inland Express.

3. Financial Reporting Issues

This category requests information and clarification regarding financials provided, including Operating Reports and proposed cash collateral budgets.

4. Sale Issues

Id. This category requests information and evidence regarding the proposed sale of the Property, including a timeline, broker, prerequisites to marketing the Property, estimates of repair costs from fire damage, and estimated sale price.

Exhibit B is a response letter from ΔIP's counsel dated July 1, 2019. The response provides answers to several of EWB's questions and references various exhibits.

Exhibit C is a follow up letter from EWB dated July 17, 2019. The follow-up letter reasserts questions posed in the June 19 letter which EWB believed need a response or supplemental information.

APPLICABLE LAW

Standing

In adjudicating issues in federal court a party must have standing. As stated in the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel in Hamilton v. Hernandez, No. CC-04-1434-MaTK, 2005 Bankr. LEXIS 3427 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Aug. 1, 2005), relief from stay proceedings are summary proceedings which address issues arising only under 11 U.S.C. Section 362(d). Hamilton, 2005 Bankr. LEXIS 3427 at *8-*9 (citing Johnson v. Righetti (In re Johnson), 756 F.2d 738, 740 (9th Cir. 1985)). The court does not determine underlying issues of ownership, contractual rights of parties, or issue declaratory relief.

A basic principal of American Jurisprudence is that the law does not condone the "officious intermeddler." One is not allowed to assert claims or rights in which he or she has no interest. In the federal courts, this is the Constitutional requirement of "standing."

Article III of the Constitution confines federal courts to decisions of "Cases" or "Controversies." Standing to sue or defend is an aspect of the case-or-controversy requirement. (Citations omitted.) To qualify as a party with standing to litigate, a person must show, first and foremost, "an invasion of a legally protected interest" that is "concrete and particularized" and "actual or imminent." (Citations omitted.)...Standing to defend on appeal in the place of an original defendant, no less than standing to sue, demands that the litigant possess ‘a direct stake in the outcome.’ (Citations omitted.)

Arizonans for Official English v. Arizona, 520 U.S. 43, 64, 117 S.Ct. 1055 (1997).

Though neither party has identified the issue of standing, the court may raise it sua sponte, Rule 12(h)(3), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A person must have a legally protected interest, for which there is a direct stake in the outcome. Arizonans for Official English v. Arizona, 520 U.S. 43, 64, 117 S.Ct. 1055 (1997). The Supreme Court provided a detailed explanation of the Constitutional case in controversy requirement in Northeastern Florida Chapter of Associated General Contractors of America v. City of Jacksonville Florida, 508 U.S. 656, 663, 113 S.Ct. 2297 (1993). The party seeking to invoke federal court jurisdiction must demonstrate (1) injury in fact, not merely conjectural or hypothetical injury, (2) a causal relationship between the injury and the challenged conduct, and (3) the prospect of obtaining relief from the injury as a result of a favorable ruling is not too speculative, Id. In determining whether the plaintiff has the requisite standing and the court has jurisdiction, the court may consider extrinsic evidence. Roverts v. Corrothers, 812 F.2d, 1173, 1177 9th Cir. 1987).

The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals addressed the issue of Constitutional standing and the self-imposed judicial restraint of prudential standing (whether the person asserting standing was within the “zone of interests”) in Motor Vehicle Casualty Co. V. Thorpe Insulation Company (In re Thorpe Insulation Company), 671 F.3d 980 (9th Cir. 2012).

This followed the United States Supreme Court discussing the judicial restraint concept in Elk Grove Unified School Dist. v. Newdow, 542 U.S. 1, 11-12 (2004). “Prudential standing” is an additional judicial “self-restraint” by which a court, which otherwise has standing, chooses to not hear the matter because of the generalized interests which do not directly relate to the person seeking to utilize the federal courts to address his or her grievance. By its very nature, a request for the court to exercise “self restraint” and not hear a matter based on prudential standing admits that Article III case in controversy Constitutional standing and federal court jurisdiction exists. One of the principal areas in which federal courts have determined it prudent to not exercise jurisdiction has been in the realm of domestic relations, giving strong deference to state law. Id., p. 12. In an earlier decision, Warth v. Seldin, 422 U.S. 490, 501 (1975), discussed the concept of prudential standing to be one in which the claims being asserted as personal to the plaintiff rests on legal rights of others.

Parties to the Contested Matter

The Motion for Relief From the Automatic Stay seeks relief of the automatic stay as it applies to property of the bankruptcy estate to allow Movant to foreclose on its collateral, which collateral is property of the bankruptcy estate. Motion, Dckt 391. In a Chapter 11 case when a trustee has not been appointed, it is the debtor in possession that shall have the powers of and perform all functions and duties of a bankruptcy trustee. 11 U.S.C. § 1107(a). Here, it is the ΔIP who is responsible for, and the obligation to, exercise the powers of a trustee to defend, to the extent a bona fide opposition exists, challenges to the rights and interests of the bankruptcy estate, which includes a creditor seeking relief from the stay to foreclose.

Neither Bier nor Zhang have sought to intervene in this contested matter as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24 and Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7024 (which Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 does not make automatically applicable in contested matters and for which relief must be requested).

While it is questionable whether Bier and Zhang are mere officious intermeddlers in the affairs of the ΔIP or would be allowed to intervene if they sought such relief, the court has considered their arguments notwithstanding the ΔIP having defaulted in this contested matter.

Cause Grounds for Relief From the Stay

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. See J E Livestock, Inc. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (In re J E Livestock, Inc.), 375 B.R. 892 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. 137, 140 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003)) (explaining that granting relief is determined on a case-by-case basis because “cause” is not further defined in the Bankruptcy Code); In re Silverling, 179 B.R. 909 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1995), aff’d sub nom. Silverling v. United States (In re Silverling), No. CIV. S-95-470 WBS, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4332 (E.D. Cal. 1996). While granting relief for cause includes a lack of adequate protection, there are other grounds. See In re J E Livestock, Inc., 375 B.R. at 897 (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. at 140). The court maintains the right to grant relief from stay for cause when a debtor has not been diligent in carrying out his or her duties in the bankruptcy case, has not made required payments, or is using bankruptcy as a means to delay payment or foreclosure. W. Equities, Inc. v. Harlan (In re Harlan), 783 F.2d 839 (9th Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Parr (In re Ellis), 60 B.R. 432 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1985).

The existence of defaults in post-petition or pre-petition payments by itself does not guarantee Movant obtaining relief from the automatic stay. A senior lienor is entitled to full satisfaction of its claim before any subordinate lienor may receive payment on its claim. 3 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 362.07[3][d][i] (Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer eds., 16th ed.). Therefore, a senior lienor may have an adequate equity cushion in the property for its claim, even though the total amount of liens may exceed a property’s equity. Id.

As to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2), a debtor has no equity in property when the liens against the property exceed the property’s value. Stewart v. Gurley, 745 F.2d 1194, 1195 (9th Cir. 1984). Once a movant under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) establishes that a debtor or estate has no equity in property, it is the burden of the debtor or trustee to establish that the collateral at issue is necessary to an effective reorganization. 11 U.S.C. § 362(g)(2); United Sav. Ass’n of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Assocs. Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 375–76 (1988).

DISCUSSION

Current Case Status

At the prior hearing the court granted a continuance to allow a plan and disclosure statement to be filed, or in the alternative to market the Property before the Plan is confirmed. Civil Minutes, Dckt. 422.

Since that prior hearing, nothing has been filed by ΔIP, Mr. Bier, or Mr. Zhang. EWB filed a series of emails to provide the court with a status update, but otherwise has not expressed a position.

From the July 1, 2019 letter identified as Exhibit B, it appears that marketing of the Property could be a distant future goal. The repairs for the fire damage were estimated to take 16-18 months. Additionally, no broker has been hired, no appraisal has been performed, and no time estimation has been given for how long until marketing can begin.

At the hearing, XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX.

Disputed Value of the Property

EWB argues the Property is encumbered by liens totaling $6,256,704.72 which exceed the $5,330,000.00 value of the Property. Bier and Zhang (now individually as the equity interest holder, conflicting what he asserts as the responsible representative of the ΔIP) assert the Property has a value range of $7,230,000.00 - $7,730,000.00.

	EWB Value Analysis (based on value asserted by the ΔIP)	Bier and Zhang (individually) Analysis
Asserted Value	$5,330,000.00	$7,230,000.00
EWB Secured Claim	($5,214,465.67)	($5,214,465.67)
Bier Claim ,for which Bier has received payments of $185,843.92 which must be applied to this obligation. (The issue of post-petition interest has not been determined due to the ΔIP asserting that the value of the Property is only $5,330,000 and that Bier is not entitled to any interest because his claim is undersecured.)	($1,042,239.05)	($1,042,239.05)
Asserted Value in Excess of Liens	($926,704.72)	$973,295.28

Based on the ΔIP’s appraisal information, EWB’s secured claim all but exhausts the value of the property, there is no equity for the bankruptcy estate, and Bier is left out in the economic cold.

Bier and Zhang, who switches to Bier’s value for this Motion, assert that not only is Bier fully secured, but there is almost another million dollars in equity for the bankruptcy estate (not taking into costs of sale). This is a $2,000,000 swing in value from that asserted by the ΔIP, and Zhang as the responsible representative just eight months ago - a 35.6% increase in value from that previously asserted (subject to the Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9011 certifications) by the ΔIP and Zhang as the responsible representative.

Bier then continues to argue that because there is a $2,000,000 equity cushion for EWB, it should not worry and Bier “believes” that the ΔIP can advance a Chapter 11 plan within a “reasonable period of time.” Opposition, Dckt. 406.

The court has conducted a long, protracted evidentiary hearing on the ΔIP’s Objection to Bier’s claim in this case. The ΔIP asserted that Bier’s claim should have been only ($580,000) or less. Bier asserted that it should be ($2,148,541.75) or more. The court determined the claim to be ($1,042.239.05), for which there are $185,843.92 in post-petition payments that must be applied to said obligation.

Clearly, both Bier and Zhang, as the responsible representative of the ΔIP, have been challenged when it has come to economic calculations.

For the Evidentiary Hearing, the court made very pointed comments about the credibility of both Bier and Zhang based upon the evidence presented - concluding that both were challenged when it came to giving credible, accurate testimony under penalty of perjury. Additionally, evidence was presented concerning Bier and the ΔIP’s pre-petition counsel, Mr. Hu, intentionally creating a document they knew contained false information so Bier could use it to obtain a visa, based on the false information, from a foreign government.

Zhang, as the equity interest holder, contends that this Property is necessary for an “effective” reorganization. Opposition, Dckt. 408. Without it, Zhang, as the equity interest holder, states that “without [the property] there is no hope of reorganization.” Id. at p. 3:8-9.

Zhang, as the equity interest holder, argues that the ΔIP should be able to confirm a plan of reorganization within a “reasonable time.” But no “reasonable time” period is stated.

With respect to Bier, he repeatedly testified as to his disdain for Zhang and Zhang’s inability to properly run the property of the Estate prior to the bankruptcy case being filed. Further, though presented with multiple opportunities to foreclose, he never did, instead electing to let Zhang run the show.

If Bier is correct and the Property is worth more than $7,230,000.00, then he could foreclose (obtaining relief from the stay at the same time as EWB), pay off EWB from a quick sale, and then pocket all of the remaining proceeds from a sale, which amount would be well in excess of his claim as determined by the court. Assuming Bier is correct and he actually believes that the property is worth more, say $7,500,000.00, then his upside to bringing this multi-year, no Chapter 11 plan case to a conclusion would be computed as follows:

Bier Asserted Value	$7,500,000.00
Estimated Costs of Sale at 5%	($375,000.00)
EWB Secured Claim (estimated higher due to delay in foreclosing and Bier selling the property)	($5,500,000.00)
Net Sales Proceeds for Bier	$1,625,000.00

Post-Petition Payments Received by Bier to be Applied to his Claim	$185,843.92
Economic Recovery for Bier Based on His ($1,042,239.05) Secured Claim	$1,810,843.92

If truly confident that the Property is worth more than $7,230,000.00, then Bier could foreclose and turn a quick $768,604.87 profit (an additional 74% more than he is actually owed). This 74% additional profit over his claim is without taking into account all of the rent revenues collected during the period in which the foreclosure is completed and the Property quickly sold.

The fact that Bier chooses not to foreclose but just delay EWB further puts into question whether he truly believes that such higher value exists. Given his clear disdain for Zhang and his repeated testimony in the evidentiary hearing that Zhang could not properly manage the Property, it would make little sense to leave such a “valuable” asset for Bier in the hands of someone Bier is convinced cannot manage it.

When Bier and Zhang, individually as an equity interest holder, assert that the ΔIP can quickly and reasonably confirm a Chapter 11 Plan, they ignore the history in this case. The Debtor commenced this case on April 7, 2017. From that day through the June 13, 2019 hearing on this Motion, Zhang has been in control as the responsible representative of the ΔIP. Zhang, as the responsible representative, and the ΔIP have had two years, two months, and thirteen days to confirm a plan in this case. No plan has been confirmed.

The ΔIP filed a Chapter 11 Plan on February 22, 2018. Dckt. 166. Then on May 3, 2018, ΔIP filed the First Amended Plan and the Amended Disclosure Statement. Dckts. 232, 234. The court’s order approving the Disclosure Statement was filed on May 10, 2018, Dckt. 237, and the confirmation hearing was set for July 19, 2019. Id.

The Confirmation Hearing was continued to August 30, 2018, with Bier opposing confirmation. Order, Dckt. 254. As noted in the Civil Minutes for the July 19, 2018 hearing, the ΔIP failed to file a declaration providing evidentiary support for confirmation of the First Amended Plan. Civil Minutes, Dckt. 255 at 2.

In a ΔIP Status Report filed on August 27, 2018, the ΔIP stated that the dispute with Bier continued and “regardless of the outcome of those negotiations, the ΔIP is not currently prepared to present evidence in support of confirmation.” Status Report, p. 1:21-24; Dckt. 269.

The confirmation of the proposed First Amended Plan was denied. Civil Minutes, Dckt. 273. In the Civil Minutes, the court’s finding include:

DENIAL OF CONFIRMATION

At the hearing, Debtor in Possession advised the court that it was not prepared to proceed with confirmation of this plan. As noted by the court, two weeks earlier Debtor in Possession represented that it anticipated confirmation and that the denial of appointment of special counsel was not of significant concern because the "plan administrator" could just hire counsel to assert the rights and interests of the estate. See Civil Minutes, Dckt. 267. Confirmation having been denied, the Debtor in Possession will need to proceed with promptly obtaining authorization of special counsel to protect the rights and interests of the bankruptcy estate.

Id. at 5. Though professing to be diligently prosecuting a plan in this case, when the day of the confirmation hearing came, the ΔIP folded its tent and walked away from its Chapter 11 plan.

In the ten months that have passed since the ΔIP walked away from its Chapter 11 plan, no new plan has been presented. There is no evidence presented that the ΔIP can, and would, diligently prosecute a plan in this case.

Failure of Bier to Propose a Plan

With no confidence in Zhang as the responsible representative of the ΔIP, Bier had a very cost effective option to foreclosing if he questioned the asserted $2,000,000.00+ in value asserted to exist above the EWB secured claim. He could have proposed a Chapter 11 plan, garnered the support of EWB, had a plan administrator appointed, the Property sold by the plan administrator, and EWB paid, Bier paid in full, and the excess money to go to the other creditors.

But Bier has chosen to do nothing. No creditor's plan has been advanced by him.

Default of ΔIP

It is significant that the fiduciary responsible for the bankruptcy estate, the ΔIP who stands in the shoes of and exercises the powers of a trustee, offers no opposition to the Motion for Relief From the Stay (choosing merely to file a declaration of ΔIP's counsel, without any actual position asserted as to the Motion outside of the caption). The ΔIP indicates that it cannot proceed with a Chapter 11 plan. It also appears that the ΔIP has concluded that there is no value for the bankruptcy estate after paying EWB and Bier and has chosen to cut off further efforts by the ΔIP, as the fiduciary to the bankruptcy estate, to prolong the bankruptcy suffering.

Cause for Relief From the Stay

EWB has established that cause exists for relief from the stay. The ΔIP has provided the evidence that EWB is under secured and the continued delays while Zhang and Bier want to continue to gamble are at EWB's risk, not Zhang or Bier's. Even if some value exists in excess of Bier's secured claim, the ΔIP and Zhang, as the responsible representative of the ΔIP, have demonstrated that after more than two years in bankruptcy they are incapable of obtaining confirmation of, or even trying to prosecute, a Chapter 11 plan.

This bankruptcy case has aged out from a good faith attempt to reorganize the business affairs of the Debtor that are now assets of the bankruptcy estate, and has become a vehicle to hinder and delay, for no bankruptcy purpose, EWB from foreclosing on an obligation that the ΔIP and Debtor cannot pay and one that Bier appears to be unwilling to pay, even if to do so would (if his asserted value of the Property were to be believed) yield him almost double of what he is owed.

As discussed in Collier on Bankruptcy, “cause” for relief from the stay is broader than merely arguing over whether there is adequate protection for the delay.

[a] General Examples of Cause

Use of the word “cause” suggests an intention that the bases for relief from the stay should be broader than merely lack of adequate protection. Thus, relief might be granted when the court finds that the debtor commenced the case in bad faith. And relief also may be granted when necessary to permit litigation to be concluded in another forum, particularly if the nonbankruptcy suit involves multiple parties or is ready for trial. Relief may also be granted to permit an embezzlement victim to pursue the embezzled property in the debtor’s hands. Actions that are only remotely related to the case under title 11 or which involve the rights of third parties often will be permitted to proceed in another forum.

3 Collier on Bankruptcy P 362.07 (16th 2019).

To the extent that the Δ IP was attempting in good faith to prosecute this case and a Chapter 11 plan, it and its responsible representative, Zhang, would have done so. To the extent that Bier believes that the property has significant value, he could have diligently prosecuted a creditor’s plan, had the property sold, with both EWB and Bier paid in full (if the Property is actually worth what Bier asserts). No creditor’s plan was advanced by Bier.

One could speculate that if the Property is really worth as much as Bier asserts, then he might make the financial decision to sit pat, let EWB get relief from the stay (which is then granted as to all creditors having a lien on the property so they can act to protect their interests), make a deal with EWB to get the property sold, foreclose and then recover almost double of what he is owed. Bier does not attempt to do that, but instead merely argue that EWB should be delayed further, now more than two years into this case, premised upon some unexplained, inchoate plan concept, that may be proposed by the Δ IP, who does not oppose this Motion, sometime in the future (the two-plus years of this case not being enough for the diligent prosecution of a plan).

There is no good faith prosecution of this case by the Δ IP. There is no attempt by any creditors to prosecute a plan in this case. The case appears to continue to exist to further the wheeling and dealing of Bier and Zhang, personally as an equity holder, and not for any proper purpose under the Bankruptcy Code.

To the extent that value exists in excess of the two secured claims, it does not overcome the cause by the lack of good faith prosecution of a plan in this case. It does not overcome the Δ IP electing to not oppose the Motion, which indicates that the Δ IP knows there is no good faith prosecution of this case. It does not overcome the lack of good faith of a response that merely says, there will be some plan, at some time, with some terms, that may be filed in the case. It does not overcome the Zhang flipping on the value of the Property, when eight months ago he, subject to the Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9011 certifications, as the responsible represented/asserted/admitted for the Δ IP that the Property has a value of only $5,330,000.00, but now as an equity holder contracts that by stating that he personally believes that the value is in excess of $7,000,000.00.

The Δ IP has had every opportunity to prosecute this case. No creditor sought the appointment of a trustee. No creditor filed a competing plan. No creditor has hounded the ΔIP and presented the ΔIP and ΔIP's experienced bankruptcy counsel from filing, prosecuting, and confirming a plan.

Cause exists to terminate the automatic stay. The court shall issue its order vacating the automatic stay to allow East West Bank , its agents, representatives, and successors, and trustee under the trust deed, and any other beneficiary or trustee, and their respective agents and successors under any trust deed that is recorded against the real property commonly known as (1) 1904, 1908, 1912, 1916, 1920, 1928, 1936 Weber Avenue ("Parcel 1 Through 7"); 1881 E. Market Street (Parcel 11, B1 thru B15); 1617 (Parcel 12, A thru D), 1555 (Parcel 14 thru 16); 1531 (Parcel 17), 1523 E. Main Street (Parcel 18) (collectively, the "Property") to secure an obligation to exercise any and all rights arising under the promissory note, trust deed, and applicable nonbankruptcy law to conduct a nonjudicial foreclosure sale and for the purchaser at any such sale to obtain possession of the Property.

The court does not rule on the lack of equity grounds, that being at issue with conflicting evidence.

Request for Attorneys' Fees

In the Memorandum of Points and Authorities, almost as if an afterthought, Movant requests that it be allowed attorneys' fees. No dollar amount is requested for such fees. No evidence is provided of Movant having incurred any attorneys' fees or having any obligation to pay attorneys' fees. Based on the pleadings, the court would either: (1) have to award attorneys' fees based on grounds made out of whole cloth, or (2) research all of the documents and California statutes and draft for Movant grounds for attorneys' fees, and then make up a number for the amount of such fees out of whole cloth. The court is not inclined to do either.

The Supreme Court has amended Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7008 deleting the requirement that a request for attorney's fees be pleaded as a claim in the complaint/motion. Now, attorney's fees and costs are requested by a post-judgment/order motion and costs bill as provided in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54 and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7054, 9014.

Request for Waiver of Fourteen-Day Stay of Enforcement

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) stays an order granting a motion for relief from the automatic stay for fourteen days after the order is entered, unless the court orders otherwise. Movant requests in the Motion, for no particular reason, that the court grant relief from the Rule as adopted by the United States Supreme Court. With no grounds for such relief specified, the court will not grant additional relief merely stated in the prayer.

Movant has not pleaded adequate facts and presented sufficient evidence to support the court waiving the fourteen-day stay of enforcement required under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3), and this part of the requested relief is not granted.

~~————— No other or additional relief is granted by the court.~~

~~The court shall issue an order substantially in the following form holding that:~~

~~Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.~~

~~The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by Creditor East West Bank (“EWB” or “Movant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing;~~

~~IT IS ORDERED that the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) are vacated to allow East West Bank, its agents, representatives, and successors, and trustee under the trust deed, and any other beneficiary or trustee, and their respective agents and successors under any trust deed that is recorded against the real property commonly known as (1) 1904, 1908, 1912, 1916, 1920, 1928, 1936 Weber Avenue (“Parcel 1 Through 7”); 1881 E. Market Street (Parcel 11, B1 thru B15); 1617 (Parcel 12, A thru D), 1555 (Parcel 14 thru 16); 1531 (Parcel 17), 1523 E. Main Street (Parcel 18) (collectively, the “Property”) to secure an obligation to exercise any and all rights arising under the promissory note, trust deed, and applicable nonbankruptcy law to conduct a nonjudicial foreclosure sale and for the purchaser at any such sale to obtain possession of the Property.~~

~~IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the fourteen-day stay of enforcement provided in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) is not waived for cause.~~

~~Attorney’s fees and costs, if any, shall be requested as provided by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 54 and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7054 and 9014.~~

~~No other or additional relief is granted.~~

AMUR EQUIPMENT FINANCE, INC.
VS.

Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court’s resolution of the matter.

Below is the court’s tentative ruling, rendered on the assumption that there will be no opposition to the motion. If there is opposition presented, the court will consider the opposition and whether further hearing is proper pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(2)(C).

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(2) Motion—Hearing Required.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor’s Attorney, Chapter 7 Trustee, and Office of the United States Trustee on July 30, 2019. By the court’s calculation, 16 days’ notice was provided. 14 days’ notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay was properly set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(2). Debtor, creditors, the Chapter 7 Trustee, the U.S. Trustee, and any other parties in interest were not required to file a written response or opposition to the motion. If any of these potential respondents appear at the hearing and offer opposition to the motion, the court will set a briefing schedule and a final hearing, unless there is no need to develop the record further. If no opposition is offered at the hearing, the court will take up the merits of the motion. At the hearing, -----.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is granted.

AMUR Equipment Finance, Inc. (“Movant”) seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to an asset identified as a 2015 Freightliner Model 125 Tractor Truck, VIN ending in 3774 (“Vehicle”). The moving party has provided the Declaration of Karla Beran to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation owed by Mihail Tetelea (“Debtor”).

Movant argues Debtor has not made 3 post-petition payments, with a total of $5,856.00 in post-petition payments past due. Declaration, Dckt. 27.

DISCUSSION

From the evidence provided to the court, and only for purposes of this Motion for Relief, the debt secured by this asset is determined to be $83,039.11 (Declaration, Dckt. 27), while the value of the Vehicle is determined to be $61,500.00, as stated in Schedules B and D filed by Debtor. Dckt. 1.

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. See J E Livestock, Inc. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (In re J E Livestock, Inc.), 375 B.R. 892 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. 137, 140 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003)) (explaining that granting relief is determined on a case-by-case basis because “cause” is not further defined in the Bankruptcy Code); In re Silverling, 179 B.R. 909 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1995), aff’d sub nom. Silverling v. United States (In re Silverling), No. CIV. S-95-470 WBS, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4332 (E.D. Cal. 1996). While granting relief for cause includes a lack of adequate protection, there are other grounds. See In re J E Livestock, Inc., 375 B.R. at 897 (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. at 140). The court maintains the right to grant relief from stay for cause when a debtor has not been diligent in carrying out his or her duties in the bankruptcy case, has not made required payments, or is using bankruptcy as a means to delay payment or foreclosure. W. Equities, Inc. v. Harlan (In re Harlan), 783 F.2d 839 (9th Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Parr (In re Ellis), 60 B.R. 432 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1985). The court determines that cause exists for terminating the automatic stay, including defaults in post-petition payments that have come due. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1); In re Ellis, 60 B.R. 432.

A debtor has no equity in property when the liens against the property exceed the property’s value. Stewart v. Gurley, 745 F.2d 1194, 1195 (9th Cir. 1984). Once a movant under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) establishes that a debtor or estate has no equity in property, it is the burden of the debtor or trustee to establish that the collateral at issue is necessary to an effective reorganization. 11 U.S.C. § 362(g)(2); United Sav. Ass’n of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Assocs. Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 375–76 (1988); 3 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 362.07[4][b] (Alan N. Resnick & Henry J. Sommer eds., 16th ed.) (stating that Chapter 13 debtors are rehabilitated, not reorganized). Based upon the evidence submitted, the court determines that there is no equity in the Vehicle for either Debtor or the Estate. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2). This being a Chapter 7 case, the Vehicle is per se not necessary for an effective reorganization. See Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1981).

The court shall issue an order terminating and vacating the automatic stay to allow Movant, and its agents, representatives and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, to repossess, dispose of, or sell the asset pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law and their contractual rights, and for any purchaser, or successor to a purchaser, to obtain possession of the asset.

Request for Waiver of Fourteen-Day Stay of Enforcement

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) stays an order granting a motion for relief from the automatic stay for fourteen days after the order is entered, unless the court orders otherwise. Movant requests, for no particular reason, that the court grant relief from the Rule as adopted by the United States Supreme Court. With no grounds for such relief specified, the court will not grant additional relief merely stated in the prayer.

Movant has not pleaded adequate facts and presented sufficient evidence to support the court waiving the fourteen-day stay of enforcement required under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3), and this part of the requested relief is not granted.

No other or additional relief is granted by the court.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by AMUR Equipment Finance, Inc. (“Movant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) are vacated to allow Movant, its agents, representatives, and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, under its security agreement, loan documents granting it a lien in the asset identified as a 2015 Freightliner Model 125 Tractor Truck, VIN ending in 3774 (“Vehicle”), and applicable nonbankruptcy law to obtain possession of, nonjudicially sell, and apply proceeds from the sale of the Vehicle to the obligation secured thereby.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the fourteen-day stay of enforcement provided in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) is not waived for cause.

No other or additional relief is granted.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the August 15, 2019 hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor’s Attorney, creditors, parties requesting special notice, and Office of the United States Trustee on July 5, 2019. By the court’s calculation, 41 days’ notice was provided. 35 days’ notice is required. FED. R. BANKR. P. 2002(a)(6) (requiring twenty-one days’ notice when requested fees exceed $1,000.00); LOCAL BANKR. R. 9014-1(f)(1)(B) (requiring fourteen days’ notice for written opposition).

The Motion for Allowance of Professional Fees has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party’s failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties’ pleadings.

The Motion for Allowance of Professional Fees is granted.

Michael D. McGranahan, the Chapter 7 Trustee, (“Applicant”) for the Estate of Moore Epitaxial, Inc. (“Client”), makes a Request for the Allowance of Fees and Expenses in this case. Fees are requested for the period December 10, 2014 through August 31, 2019.

STATUTORY BASIS FOR PROFESSIONAL FEES

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(3),

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded to an examiner, trustee under chapter 11, or professional person, the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including—

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field; and

(F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

Further, the court shall not allow compensation for,

(i) unnecessary duplication of services; or

(ii) services that were not—

(I) reasonably likely to benefit the debtor's estate;

(II) necessary to the administration of the case.

11 U.S.C. § 330(a)(4)(A). A professional must “demonstrate only that the services were reasonably likely to benefit the estate at the time rendered,” not that the services resulted in actual, compensable, material benefits to the estate. Ferrette & Slatter v. United States Tr. (In re Garcia), 335 B.R. 717, 724 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2005) (citing Roberts, Sheridan & Kotel, P.C. v. Bergen Brunswick Drug Co. (In re Mednet), 251 B.R. 103, 108 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2000)). The court may award interim fees for professionals pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 331, which award is subject to final review and allowance pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330.

Benefit to the Estate

Even if the court finds that the services billed by a trustee are “actual,” meaning that the fee application reflects time entries properly charged for services, the trustee must demonstrate still that the work performed was necessary and reasonable. Unsecured Creditors' Comm. v. Puget Sound Plywood, Inc. (In re Puget Sound Plywood), 924 F.2d 955, 958 (9th Cir. 1991). A trustee must exercise good billing judgment with regard to the services provided because the court's authorization to employ a trustee to work in a bankruptcy case does not give that trustee “free reign to run up a [professional fees and expenses] tab without considering the maximum probable recovery,” as opposed to a possible recovery. Id.; see also Brosio v. Deutsche Bank Nat'l Tr. Co. (In re Brosio), 505 B.R. 903, 913 n.7 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 2014) (“Billing judgment is mandatory.”). According the Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, prior to working on a legal matter, the attorney, or other professional as appropriate, is obligated to consider:

(a) Is the burden of the probable cost of legal [or other professional] services disproportionately large in relation to the size of the estate and maximum probable recovery?

(b) To what extent will the estate suffer if the services are not rendered?

(c) To what extent may the estate benefit if the services are rendered and what is the likelihood of the disputed issues being resolved successfully?

In re Puget Sound Plywood, 924 F.2d at 958–59 (citing In re Wildman, 72 B.R. 700, 707 (N.D. Ill. 1987)).

A review of the application shows that Applicant’s services for the Estate largely centered around the recovery and disposition of assets of the estate, along with general case administration. The court finds the services were beneficial to Client and the Estate and were reasonable.

FEES REQUESTED

Applicant’s billing records are separated into the following categories:

Asset Analysis and Recovery

Asset Disposition

General Case Administration

Claims Administration

Fee and Employment Applications

Tax Matters

Exhibit D, Dckt. 333.

The Application does not provide a clean task-billing analysis, but does describe the services provided in this case, which generally involved the analysis and liquidation of shares held by Debtor. The shares held by Debtor were in a company, International Reactor Services, Inc., formed for the sole purpose of holding shares of another Chinese company, Shanghai Simgui Technology Co., Ltd, a Chinese Corporation. The liquidation of the Chinese company shares required extensive consultation with special counsel regarding securities and foreign exchange compliance. Applicant also worked with an accountant to perform a tax analysis of the liquidation.

Applicant requests the following fees:

25% of the first $5,000.00	$1,250.00
10% of the next $45,000.00	$4,500.00
5% of the next $950,000.00	$47,500.00

3% of the balance of $440,291.27	$13,208.74
Calculated Total Compensation	$66,458.74
Total Maximum Allowable Compensation	$66,458.74
Less Previously Paid	$0.00
Total First and Final Fees Requested	$66,458.74

The fees are computed on the total sales generated $1,440,291.27 of gross monies (exclusive of these requested fees and costs), with unsecured claims receiving a 78.2 percent dividend totaling $1,236,000.

COSTS REQUESTED

Applicant also requests $191.66 in costs. Applicant's billing records show the costs are for copies, court conference calls, postage, and telephone charges. Exhibit C, Dckt. 333.

FEES & COSTS ALLOWED

The court finds that the requested fees are reasonable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 326(a) and that Applicant effectively used appropriate rates for the services provided. First and Final Fees in the amount of $66,458.74 are approved pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330 are authorized to be paid by the Chapter 7 Trustee from the available funds of the Estate in a manner consistent with the order of distribution in a Chapter 7 case.

The Chapter 7 Trustee oversaw the liquidation of . Applicant's efforts have resulted in a realized gross of $1,440,291.27 recovered for the estate. Dckt. 332.

This case required significant work by the Chapter 7 Trustee, with full amounts permitted under 11 U.S.C. § 326(a), to represent the reasonable and necessary fees allowable as a commission to the Chapter 7 Trustee.

First and Final Fees in the amount of $191.66 are approved pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 330 are authorized to be paid by the Chapter 7 Trustee from the available funds of the Estate in a manner consistent with the order of distribution in a Chapter 7 case.

Applicant is allowed, and the Chapter 7 Trustee is authorized to pay, the following amounts as compensation to this professional in this case:

Fees	$66,650.40
Costs and Expenses	$191.66

The court shall issue an order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Allowance of Fees and Expenses filed by Michael D. McGranahan, the Chapter 7 Trustee, (“Applicant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that Michael D. McGranahan is allowed the following fees and expenses as a professional of the Estate:

Michael D. McGranahan, the Chapter 7 Trustee

Fees in the amount of $66,650.40

Expenses in the amount of $191.66,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Chapter 7 Trustee is authorized to pay the fees allowed by this Order from the available funds of the Estate in a manner consistent with the order of distribution in a Chapter 7 case.

ARVEST CENTRAL MORTGAGE COMPANY VS.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the August 15, 2019 hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor’s Attorney, Chapter 7 Trustee, parties requesting special notice, and Office of the United States Trustee on July 12, 2019. By the court’s calculation, 34 days’ notice was provided. 28 days’ notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party’s failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties’ pleadings.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is granted.

Arvest Central Mortgage Company as Authorized Agent for DEUTSCHE BANK NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY AS TRUSTEE FOR DOWNEY 2006-AR1 (“Movant”) seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to Catherine Lee Cook’s (“Debtor”) real property commonly known as 800 Regatta Drive, Sacramento, California (“Property”). Movant has provided the Declaration of Latoya Johnson to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation secured by the Property.

Movant argues Debtor has not made 14 post-petition payments, with a total of $23,090.93 in post-petition payments past due. Declaration, Dckt. 113.

On her Statement of Intention, Debtor indicates the Property is to be surrendered. Dckt. 98.

DISCUSSION

From the evidence provided to the court, and only for purposes of this Motion for Relief, the debt secured by this asset is determined to be $261,854.83 (Declaration, Dckt. 113), while the value of the Vehicle is determined to be $245,000.00, as stated in Schedules B and D filed by Debtor. Dckt. 1.

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. See J E Livestock, Inc. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (In re J E Livestock, Inc.), 375 B.R. 892 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. 137, 140 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003)) (explaining that granting relief is determined on a case-by-case basis because “cause” is not further defined in the Bankruptcy Code); In re Silverling, 179 B.R. 909 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1995), aff’d sub nom. Silverling v. United States (In re Silverling), No. CIV. S-95-470 WBS, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4332 (E.D. Cal. 1996). While granting relief for cause includes a lack of adequate protection, there are other grounds. See In re J E Livestock, Inc., 375 B.R. at 897 (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. at 140). The court maintains the right to grant relief from stay for cause when a debtor has not been diligent in carrying out his or her duties in the bankruptcy case, has not made required payments, or is using bankruptcy as a means to delay payment or foreclosure. W. Equities, Inc. v. Harlan (In re Harlan), 783 F.2d 839 (9th Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Parr (In re Ellis), 60 B.R. 432 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1985). The court determines that cause exists for terminating the automatic stay, including defaults in post-petition payments that have come due and Debtor’s intent to surrender the Property. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1); In re Ellis, 60 B.R. 432.

The court shall issue an order terminating and vacating the automatic stay to allow Movant, and its agents, representatives and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Property, to conduct a nonjudicial foreclosure sale pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law and their contractual rights, and for any purchaser, or successor to a purchaser, at the nonjudicial foreclosure sale to obtain possession of the Property.

Request for Waiver of Fourteen-Day Stay of Enforcement

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) stays an order granting a motion for relief from the automatic stay for fourteen days after the order is entered, unless the court orders otherwise. Movant requests, for no particular reason, that the court grant relief from the Rule as adopted by the United States Supreme Court. With no grounds for such relief specified, the court will not grant additional relief merely stated in the prayer.

Movant has not pleaded adequate facts and presented sufficient evidence to support the court waiving the fourteen-day stay of enforcement required under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3), and this part of the requested relief is not granted.

No other or additional relief is granted by the court.

The court shall issue an order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by Arvest Central Mortgage Company as Authorized Agent for DEUTSCHE BANK NATIONAL TRUST COMPANY AS TRUSTEE FOR DOWNEY 2006-AR1 (“Movant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) are vacated to allow Movant, its agents, representatives, and successors, and trustee under the trust deed, and any other beneficiary or trustee, and their respective agents and successors under any trust deed that is recorded against the real property commonly known as 800 Regatta Drive, Sacramento, California, (“Property”) to secure an obligation to exercise any and all rights arising under the promissory note, trust deed, and applicable nonbankruptcy law to conduct a nonjudicial foreclosure sale and for the purchaser at any such sale to obtain possession of the Property.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the fourteen-day stay of enforcement provided in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) is not waived for cause.

No other or additional relief is granted.

DAIMLER TRUST VS.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the August 15, 2019 hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor’s Attorney, Chapter 7 Trustee, parties requesting special notice, and Office of the United States Trustee on July 9, 2019. By the court’s calculation, 37 days’ notice was provided. 28 days’ notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party’s failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties’ pleadings.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is granted.

Daimler Trust (“Movant”) seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to an asset identified as a 2016 Mercedes-Benz C300W, VIN ending in 2456 (“Vehicle”). The moving party has provided the Declaration of Elizabeth Lugo to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation owed by Melanie Marie Kennedy (“Debtor”).

Movant argues the Vehicle was subject to a lease agreement which has fully matured, and that Debtor has surrendered the Vehicle. Declaration, Dckt. 15.

DISCUSSION

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. See J E Livestock, Inc. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (In re J E Livestock, Inc.), 375 B.R. 892 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. 137, 140 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003)) (explaining that granting relief is determined on a case-by-case basis because “cause” is not further defined in the Bankruptcy Code); In re Silverling, 179 B.R. 909 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1995), aff'd sub nom. Silverling v. United States (In re Silverling), No. CIV. S-95-470 WBS, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4332 (E.D. Cal. 1996). While granting relief for cause includes a lack of adequate protection, there are other grounds. See In re J E Livestock, Inc., 375 B.R. at 897 (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. at 140). The court maintains the right to grant relief from stay for cause when a debtor has not been diligent in carrying out his or her duties in the bankruptcy case, has not made required payments, or is using bankruptcy as a means to delay payment or foreclosure. W. Equities, Inc. v. Harlan (In re Harlan), 783 F.2d 839 (9th Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Parr (In re Ellis), 60 B.R. 432 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1985). The court determines that cause exists for terminating the automatic stay, including that the Vehicle was subject to a lease agreement which has fully matured, and that Debtor has surrendered the Vehicle. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1).

The court shall issue an order terminating and vacating the automatic stay to allow Movant, and its agents, representatives and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, to repossess, dispose of, or sell the asset pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law and their contractual rights, and for any purchaser, or successor to a purchaser, to obtain possession of the asset.

Request for Waiver of Fourteen-Day Stay of Enforcement

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) stays an order granting a motion for relief from the automatic stay for fourteen days after the order is entered, unless the court orders otherwise. Movant requests that the court grant relief from the Rule as adopted by the United States Supreme Court. Movant argues this relief is warranted because Debtor is delinquent, the Vehicle has been surrendered, and because the Vehicle is a depreciating asset.

Movant has pleaded adequate facts and presented sufficient evidence to support the court waiving the fourteen-day stay of enforcement required under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3), and this part of the requested relief is granted.

No other or additional relief is granted by the court.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by Daimler Trust (“Movant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) are vacated to allow Movant, its agents, representatives, and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, under its security agreement, loan documents granting it a lien in the asset identified as a 2016 Mercedes-Benz C300W, VIN ending in 2456 (“Vehicle”), and applicable nonbankruptcy law to obtain possession of, nonjudicially sell, and apply proceeds from the sale of the Vehicle to the obligation secured thereby.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the fourteen-day stay of enforcement provided in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) is waived for cause.

No other or additional relief is granted.

6. 19-22290-E-7 DEIDRE HUNTER
CAS-1 Pro Se

MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM
AUTOMATIC STAY
6-21-19 [20]

EXETER FINANCE, LLC VS.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the August 15, 2019 hearing is required.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—No Opposition Filed.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor (pro se), Chapter 7 Trustee, parties requesting special notice, and Office of the United States Trustee on June 21, 2019. By the court's calculation, 55 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). Further, because the court will not materially alter the relief requested by the moving party, an actual hearing is unnecessary. See Law Offices of David A. Boone v. Derham-Burk (In re Eliapo), 468 F.3d 592, 602 (9th Cir. 2006). Therefore, the defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered. Upon review of the record, there are no disputed material factual issues, and the matter will be resolved without oral argument. The court will issue its ruling from the parties' pleadings.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is granted.

Exeter Finance, LLC ("Movant") seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to an asset identified as a 2015 Nissan Sentra S Sedan 4D ("Vehicle"). The moving party has provided the Declaration of Nyika Hunter to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation owed by Deidre Nyika Hunter ("Debtor").

Movant argues Debtor has not made 2 post-petition payments, with a total of $908.00 in post-petition payments past due. Declaration, Dckt. 22. Movant also provides evidence that there are 5 pre-petition payments in default, with a pre-petition arrearage of $2,362.81. Id.

DISCUSSION

From the evidence provided to the court, and only for purposes of this Motion for Relief, the debt secured by this asset is determined to be $20,555.88 (Declaration, Dckt. 22), while the value of the Vehicle is determined to be $7,000.00, as stated in Schedules B and D filed by Debtor.

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. See J E Livestock, Inc. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (In re J E Livestock, Inc.), 375 B.R. 892 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. 137, 140 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003)) (explaining that granting relief is determined on a case-by-case basis because “cause” is not further defined in the Bankruptcy Code); In re Silverling, 179 B.R. 909 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1995), aff’d sub nom. Silverling v. United States (In re Silverling), No. CIV. S-95-470 WBS, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4332 (E.D. Cal. 1996). While granting relief for cause includes a lack of adequate protection, there are other grounds. See In re J E Livestock, Inc., 375 B.R. at 897 (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. at 140). The court maintains the right to grant relief from stay for cause when a debtor has not been diligent in carrying out his or her duties in the bankruptcy case, has not made required payments, or is using bankruptcy as a means to delay payment or foreclosure. W. Equities, Inc. v. Harlan (In re Harlan), 783 F.2d 839 (9th Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Parr (In re Ellis), 60 B.R. 432 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1985). The court determines that cause exists for terminating the automatic stay, including defaults in post-petition payments that have come due. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1); In re Ellis, 60 B.R. 432.

A debtor has no equity in property when the liens against the property exceed the property’s value. Stewart v. Gurley, 745 F.2d 1194, 1195 (9th Cir. 1984). Once a movant under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2) establishes that a debtor or estate has no equity in property, it is the burden of the debtor or trustee to establish that the collateral at issue is necessary to an effective reorganization. 11 U.S.C. § 362(g)(2); United Sav. Ass’n of Texas v. Timbers of Inwood Forest Assocs. Ltd., 484 U.S. 365, 375–76 (1988) Based upon the evidence submitted, the court determines that there is no equity in the Vehicle for either Debtor or the Estate. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(2). This being a Chapter 7 case, the Vehicle is per se not necessary for an effective reorganization. See Ramco Indus. v. Preuss (In re Preuss), 15 B.R. 896 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1981).

Debtor was granted a discharge in this case on August 5, 2019. Dckt. 30. Granting of a discharge to an individual in a Chapter 7 case terminates the automatic stay as to that debtor by operation of law, replacing it with the discharge injunction. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(c)(2)(C), 524(a)(2). There being no automatic stay, the Motion is denied as moot as to Debtor. The Motion is granted as to the Estate.

The court shall issue an order terminating and vacating the automatic stay to allow Movant, and its agents, representatives and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, to repossess, dispose of, or sell the asset pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law and their contractual rights, and for any purchaser, or successor to a purchaser, to obtain possession of the asset.

Request for Attorneys’ Fees

In the Motion, almost as if an afterthought, Movant requests that it be allowed attorneys’ fees. The Motion does not allege any contractual or statutory grounds for such fees (other than to state Movant seeks the fees “pursuant to the Security Agreement”). No dollar amount is requested for such fees. No evidence is provided of Movant having incurred any attorneys’ fees or having any obligation to pay attorneys’ fees. Based on the pleadings, the court would either: (1) have to award attorneys’ fees based on grounds made out of whole cloth, or (2) research all of the documents and California statutes and draft for Movant grounds for attorneys’ fees, and then make up a number for the amount of such fees out of whole cloth. The court is not inclined to do either.

Furthermore, a claim for attorney's fees and related nontaxable expenses must be made by motion unless the substantive law requires those fees to be proved at trial as an element of damages. FED. R. CIV. P. 54(d)(2)(A); FED. R. BANKR. P. 7054, 9014.

Request for Waiver of Fourteen-Day Stay of Enforcement

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) stays an order granting a motion for relief from the automatic stay for fourteen days after the order is entered, unless the court orders otherwise. Movant requests that the court grant relief from the Rule as adopted by the United States Supreme Court. Movant argues this relief is warranted because there is no equity in the Vehicle and the Vehicle is a depreciating asset.

Movant has pleaded adequate facts and presented sufficient evidence to support the court waiving the fourteen-day stay of enforcement required under Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3), and this part of the requested relief is granted.

Request for Prospective Injunctive Relief

Movant makes an additional request stated in the prayer, for which no grounds are clearly stated in the Motion. Movant's further relief requested in the prayer is that this court make this order, as opposed to every other order issued by the court, binding and effective despite any conversion of this case to another chapter of the Code. Though stated in the prayer, no grounds are stated in the Motion for grounds for such relief from the stay. The Motion presumes that conversion of the bankruptcy case will be reimposed if this case were converted to one under another Chapter.

As stated above, Movant's Motion does not state any grounds for such relief. Movant does not allege that notwithstanding an order granting relief from the automatic stay, a stealth stay continues in existence, waiting to spring to life and render prior orders of this court granting relief from the stay invalid and rendering all acts taken by parties in reliance on that order void.

No points and authorities is provided in support of the Motion. This is not unusual for a relatively simple (in a legal authorities sense) motion for relief from stay as the one before the court. Other than referencing the court to the legal basis (11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(3) or (4)) and then pleading adequate grounds thereunder, it is not necessary for a movant to provide a copy of the statute quotations from well known cases. However, if a movant is seeking relief from a possible future stay, which may arise upon conversion, the legal points and authorities for such heretofore unknown nascent stay is necessary.

As noted by another bankruptcy judge, such request (unsupported by any grounds or legal authority) for relief of a future stay in the same bankruptcy case:

[A] request for an order stating that the court's termination of the automatic stay will be binding despite conversion of the case to another chapter unless a specific exception is provided by the Bankruptcy Code is a common, albeit silly, request in a stay relief motion and does not require an adversary proceeding. Settled bankruptcy law recognizes that the order remains effective in such circumstances. Hence, the proposed provision is merely declarative of existing law and is not appropriate to include in a stay relief order.

Indeed, requests for including in orders provisions that are declarative of existing law are not innocuous. First, the mere fact that counsel finds it necessary to ask for such a ruling fosters the misimpression that the law is other than it is. Moreover, one who routinely makes such unnecessary requests may eventually have to deal with an opponent who uses the fact of one's pattern of making such requests as that lawyer's concession that the law is not as it is.

In re Van Ness, 399 B.R. 897, 907 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2009) (citing Aloyan v. Campos (In re Campos), 128 B.R. 790, 791–92 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1991); In re Greetis, 98 B.R. 509, 513 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 1989)).

As noted in the 2009 ruling quoted above, the “silly” request for unnecessary relief may well be ultimately deemed an admission by Movant and its counsel that all orders granting relief from the automatic stay are immediately terminated as to any relief granted Movant and other creditors represented by counsel, and upon conversion, any action taken by such creditor is a per se violation of the automatic stay.

No other or additional relief is granted by the court.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by Exeter Finance, LLC (“Movant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) are vacated to allow Movant, its agents, representatives, and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, under its security agreement, loan documents granting it a lien in the asset identified as a e 2015 Nissan Sentra S Sedan 4D (“Vehicle”), and applicable nonbankruptcy law to obtain possession of, nonjudicially sell, and apply proceeds from the sale of the Vehicle to the obligation secured thereby.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that to the extent the Motion seeks relief from the automatic stay as to Deidre Nyika Hunter (“Debtor”), the discharge having been granted in this case, the Motion is denied as moot pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(c)(2)(C) as to Debtor.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the fourteen-day stay of enforcement provided in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) is waived for cause.

No other or additional relief is granted.

7. 19-23392-E-11 HERBERT MILLER
AP-1 Allen Hassan

MOTION FOR RELIEF FROM
AUTOMATIC STAY
7-16-19 [37]

WILMINGTON SAVINGS FUND SOCIETY, FSB VS.
CASE CLOSED: 08/02/2019
WITHDRAWN BY M.P.

Final Ruling: No appearance at the August 15, 2019 hearing is required.

Creditor Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, as Trustee for Stanwich Mortgage Loan Trust having filed a Notice of Dismissal, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(1)(A)(i) and Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and 7041, the Motion For Relief was dismissed without prejudice, and the matter is removed from the calendar.