1. 13-23841-E-13      PATRICK PADILLA      CONTINUED MOTION FOR RELIEF
EAT-1              Richard Chan              FROM AUTOMATIC STAY
7-31-18 [77]
WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A. VS.

No Tentative Ruling: Oral argument may be presented by the parties at the scheduled hearing, where the parties shall address the issues identified in this tentative ruling and such other issues as are necessary and appropriate to the court’s resolution of the matter.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Hearing Required.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor’s Attorney, Chapter 13 Trustee, Creditor, and Office of the United States Trustee on July 31, 2018. By the court’s calculation, 28 days’ notice was provided. 28 days’ notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party’s failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). The defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX.

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (“Movant”) seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to Patrick Michael Padilla’s (“Debtor”) real property commonly known as 166 Danvers Court, Vacaville, California (“Property”). Movant has provided the Declaration of Rachel Cathcart to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation secured by the Property.

The Cathcart Love Declaration states that there are 6 post-petition defaults in the payments on the obligation secured by the Property, with a total of $10,598.33 in post-petition payments past due. The Declaration indicates no pre-petition payments missed.

TRUSTEE'S RESPONSE

Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), filed an Opposition on August 9, 2018. Dckt. 83. Trustee responds to Movant's Motion stating that Debtor's case is complete, a Final Accounting was issued July 17, 2018 (Dckt. 73.), and Debtor has paid $135,516.84 to date. Trustee includes within his Response a detailed history of Debtor's payments.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition to Movant's Motion on August 16, 2018. Dckt. 86. Debtor asserts he is not delinquent in post-petition payments, as he has made all payments under the plan. Id. Debtor notes further that since the completion of his Plan, Debtor has been making direct mortgage payments. Id.

AUGUST 28, 2018 HEARING

At the August 28, 2018, hearing, the court continued the hearing on the Motion to October 16, 2018 at 1:30 p.m. to allow Debtor time to cure delinquencies of the plan. Dckt. 91.

DISCUSSION

From the evidence provided to the court, and only for purposes of this Motion for Relief, the total debt secured by this property is determined to be $337,190.43 (including $273,469.43 secured by Movant's first deed of trust), as stated in the Love Declaration and Schedule D. The value of the Property is determined to be $196,000.00, as stated in Schedules A and D.

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. See J E Livestock, Inc. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (In re J E Livestock, Inc.), 375 B.R. 892 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. 137, 140 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003)) (explaining that granting relief is determined on a case-by-case basis because "cause" is not further defined in the Bankruptcy Code); In re Silverling, 179 B.R. 909 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1995), aff'd sub nom. Silverling v. United States (In re Silverling), No. CIV. S-95-470 WBS, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4332 (E.D. Cal. 1996). While granting relief for cause includes a lack of adequate protection, there are other grounds. See In re J E Livestock, Inc., 375 B.R. at 897 (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. at 140). The court maintains the right to grant relief from stay for cause when a debtor has not been diligent in carrying out his or her duties in the bankruptcy case, has not made required payments, or is using bankruptcy as a means to delay payment or foreclosure. W. Equities, Inc. v. Harlan (In re Harlan), 783 F.2d 839 (9th Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Parr (In re Ellis), 60 B.R. 432 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1985). The court determines that cause exists for terminating the automatic stay, including defaults in post-petition payments that have come due. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1); In re Ellis, 60 B.R. 432.

Review of Alleged Default, Confirmed Plan, and Pleadings filed by Movant

The arguments of the Trustee and Debtor are well-taken. Debtor has also cured all arrearages owed to Movant. Dckt. 84.

The significant discrepancy between Movant’s calculations and those of the Trustee and Debtor appear to be a disagreement over payment amounts early on in the Plan. Movant’s calculation asserts that monthly payments of $1,357.35 in Principal and Interest, plus an additional $309.27 for monthly escrow costs, totaling $1,666.62. Proof of Claim No 12-3.

Debtor’s Plan provided for monthly payments of $1,357.35 for the post-petition current monthly installment, and an additional $291.41 to cure arrears. Dckt. 5. Debtor filed a First Amended Plan in part to increase the amount paid to arrears, but the principal amount for ongoing payments to Movant remained constant. Dckt. 38.

Movant did not object to the confirmation of Debtor’s Plan. Movant filed its original Proof of Claim on July 24, 2013 (the month after the original Plan was confirmed in this case). Proof of Claim No. 12. The information provided in Proof of Claim 12 bearing on the Motion now before the court include:

Amount of Secured Claim.....($295,880.47)
Pre-Petition Arrearage.....($ 16,549.82)

Attachment to Proof of Claim No. 12

Pre-Petition Default In Installments.....$1,669.10 each x 8 Payments in Default

New Monthly Escrow Payment.....($309.27)
    Comprised of Monthly
        Taxes.....($201.94)

Insurance.....($107.33)

On May 11, 2016, Movant filed Second Amended Proof of Claim No. 12-2. The Second Amended Claim slightly reduces the amount of the claim and the pre-petition arrearage. Movant filed Notices of Mortgage Payment Change in 2015, 2017, and 2018.

In response to the Notice of Final Cure Payment, on June 1, 2018, Movant asserts that Debtor is in default for $10,883.93 in payments. The defaults are stated to be:

December 1, 2013	($1,588.42)
November 1, 2013	($1,588.42)
October 1, 2013	($1,588.42)
September 1, 2013	($1,588.42)
Escrow Adjustments
March 22, 2016	($125.92)
April 12, 2016	($458.81)
February 2017	($2.48)
March 20, 2017	($159.68)
Total	($7,100.57)

This attachment also indicates that there is a positive $12,234.38 being held as the “Debtor Suspense Balance.”

At the hearing, Movant’s counsel explained that the $12,234.38 reported “Debtor Suspense Balance” consists of XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

Actual Default at Issue

From the evidence presented by Movant and the Chapter 13 Trustee, it appears that the real dispute and issue relates to the monthly escrow amount with the plan payments under the original plan that has been confirmed in this case. Movant has confused the issue in not clearly accounting for and identifying the payments not made.

Debtor has not helped clarify the issue, focusing only on the amount provided in the Plan, not what was actually due as set forth in the Proofs of Claim. Debtor has also not provided any information about the property taxes and insurance for the period when no escrow payment was made by Debtor.

At the hearing, the Parties clarified the default, what has been paid, and what is actually outstanding (after taking into account monies held in “suspense” by Movant) is:

XX

Waiver of Fourteen-Day Stay of Enforcement

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 4001(a)(3) stays an order granting a motion for relief from the automatic stay for fourteen days after the order is entered, unless the court orders otherwise. At the hearing, Movant asserted there was cause to waive the fourteen-day stay because XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX.

Prospective Injunctive Relief

Movant makes an additional request stated in the prayer, for which no grounds are clearly stated in the Motion. Movant’s further relief requested in the prayer is that this court make this order, as opposed to every other order issued by the court, binding and effective despite any conversion of this case to another chapter of the Code. Though stated in the prayer, no grounds are stated in the Motion for grounds for such relief from the stay. The Motion presumes that conversion of the bankruptcy case will be reimposed if this case were converted to one under another Chapter.

As stated above, Movant’s Motion does not state any grounds for such relief. Movant does not allege that notwithstanding an order granting relief from the automatic stay, a stealth stay continues in existence, waiting to spring to life and render prior orders of this court granting relief from the stay invalid and rendering all acts taken by parties in reliance on that order void.

No points and authorities is provided in support of the Motion. This is not unusual for a relatively simple (in a legal authorities sense) motion for relief from stay as the one before the court. Other than referencing the court to the legal basis (11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(3) or (4)) and then pleading adequate grounds thereunder, it is not necessary for a movant to provide a copy of the statute quotations from well known cases. However, if a movant is seeking relief from a possible future stay, which may arise upon conversion, the legal points and authorities for such heretofore unknown nascent stay is necessary.

As noted by another bankruptcy judge, such request (unsupported by any grounds or legal authority) for relief of a future stay in the same bankruptcy case:

[A] request for an order stating that the court's termination of the automatic stay will be binding despite conversion of the case to another chapter unless a specific exception is provided by the Bankruptcy Code is a common, albeit silly, request in a stay relief motion and does not require an adversary proceeding. Settled bankruptcy law recognizes that the order remains effective in such circumstances. Hence, the proposed provision is merely declarative of existing law and is not appropriate to include in a stay relief order.

Indeed, requests for including in orders provisions that are declarative of existing law are not innocuous. First, the mere fact that counsel finds it necessary to ask for such a ruling fosters the misimpression that the law is other than it is. Moreover, one who routinely makes such unnecessary requests may eventually have to deal with an opponent who uses the fact of one's pattern of making such requests as that lawyer's concession that the law is not as it is.

In re Van Ness, 399 B.R. 897, 907 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 2009) (citing Aloyan v. Campos (In re Campos), 128 B.R. 790, 791–92 (Bankr. C.D. Cal. 1991); In re Greetis, 98 B.R. 509, 513 (Bankr. S.D. Cal. 1989)).

As noted in the 2009 ruling quoted above, the “silly” request for unnecessary relief may well be ultimately deemed an admission by Wells Fargo, N.A. and its counsel that all orders granting relief from the automatic stay are immediately terminated as to any relief granted Wells Fargo, N.A. and other creditors represented by counsel, and upon conversion, any action taken by such creditor is a per se violation of the automatic stay.

No other or additional relief is granted by the court.

The court shall issue an order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by Wells Fargo, N.A. (“Movant”) having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion for Relief from Stay is XXXXXXXXXXXX

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Hearing Required.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor's Attorney, Chapter 13 Trustee, parties requesting special notice, and Office of the United States Trustee on September 14, 2018. By the court's calculation, 32 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). The defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is granted.

Toyota Motor Credit Corporation, servicing agent for Toyota Lease Trust ("Movant") seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to an asset identified as a 2017 Lexus RX350, VIN ending in 00697 ("Vehicle"). The moving party has provided the Declaration of Rahnae Spooner to introduce evidence to authenticate the documents upon which it bases the claim and the obligation owed by Joselito Santos and Gina Santos ("Debtor").

The Spooner Declaration provides testimony that Debtor has not made 3 post-petition payments, with a total of $3,375.81 in post-petition payments past due. Dckt. 23. The Declaration states further that Debtor's interest is solely possessory, the vehicle being leased for monthly payments of $1,125.27. Id.

Movant asserts in its Motion it is entitled to relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) because the Debtor is in default under the terms of the Lease Agreement, the property is a rapidly depreciating asset, and Movant is not receiving adequate protection for its collateral.

TRUSTEE'S RESPONSE

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee") filed a Response on September 24, 2018. Dckt. 27. Trustee notes Debtor has not made payments under, and Movant's lease agreement was not reported on, the Confirmed Plan.

DISCUSSION

Whether there is cause under 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1) to grant relief from the automatic stay is a matter within the discretion of a bankruptcy court and is decided on a case-by-case basis. See J E Livestock, Inc. v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (In re J E Livestock, Inc.), 375 B.R. 892 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2007) (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. 137, 140 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003)) (explaining that granting relief is determined on a case-by-case basis because "cause" is not further defined in the Bankruptcy Code); In re Silverling, 179 B.R. 909 (Bankr. E.D. Cal. 1995), aff'd sub nom. Silverling v. United States (In re Silverling), No. CIV. S-95-470 WBS, 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 4332 (E.D. Cal. 1996). While granting relief for cause includes a lack of adequate protection, there are other grounds. See In re J E Livestock, Inc., 375 B.R. at 897 (quoting In re Busch, 294 B.R. at 140). The court maintains the right to grant relief from stay for cause when a debtor has not been diligent in carrying out his or her duties in the bankruptcy case, has not made required payments, or is using bankruptcy as a means to delay payment or foreclosure. W. Equities, Inc. v. Harlan (In re Harlan), 783 F.2d 839 (9th Cir. 1986); Ellis v. Parr (In re Ellis), 60 B.R. 432 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1985). The court determines that cause exists for terminating the automatic stay, including Debtor's interest being merely possessory, Debtor not making any post-petition payments, and Debtor's proposed plan rejecting the lease agreement. 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1); In re Ellis, 60 B.R. 432.

Additionally, Movant has provided sufficient grounds to grant relief from the co-debtor stay under 11 U.S.C. § 1301(a). Movant has established, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1301(a), that it would be irreparably harmed if relief from the co-debtor stay were not granted because the plan filed by the Debtor does not propose to pay Movant's claim.

The court shall issue an order terminating and vacating the automatic stay to allow Movant, and its agents, representatives and successors, and all other creditors having lien rights against the Vehicle, to repossess, dispose of, or sell the asset pursuant to applicable nonbankruptcy law and their contractual rights, and for any purchaser, or successor to a purchaser, to obtain possession of the asset.

No other or additional relief is granted by the court.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by Toyota Motor Credit Corporation, servicing agent for Toyota Lease Trust (“Movant”), having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED the automatic stay provisions of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) are vacated to allow Movant, its agents, representatives, and successors, and all other creditors having, rights against the Vehicle, under its lease agreement, the asset identified as a 2017 Lexus RX350, VIN ending in 00697 (“Vehicle”), and applicable nonbankruptcy law to obtain possession of, nonjudicially sell, and apply proceeds from the sale of the Vehicle to the obligation secured thereby.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the request to terminate the co-debtor stay of Gabrielle Santos of 11 U.S.C. § 1301(a) is granted to the same extent as provided in the forgoing paragraph granting relief from the automatic stay arising under 11 U.S.C. § 362(a).

No other or additional relief is granted.

Local Rule 9014-1(f)(1) Motion—Hearing Required.

Sufficient Notice Provided. The Proof of Service states that the Motion and supporting pleadings were served on Debtor, Debtor's Attorney, Chapter 13 Trustee, creditors, and Office of the United States Trustee on September 6, 2018. By the court's calculation, 40 days' notice was provided. 28 days' notice is required.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay has been set for hearing on the notice required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). Failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least fourteen days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (upholding a court ruling based upon a local rule construing a party's failure to file opposition as consent to grant a motion). The defaults of the non-responding parties and other parties in interest are entered.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay is denied without prejudice.

USE Credit Union ("Movant") seeks relief from the automatic stay with respect to an asset identified as a 2016 Honda Odyssey, VIN ending in 7839 ("Vehicle").

Movant asserts cause exists for relief from automatic stay because Debtor is not insuring the Vehicle. Dckt. 26. Movant determined the Vehicle is not insured based on Debtor's failure to provide proof of insurance after its requests. Declaration, 28 at ¶ 7.

DEBTOR'S OPPOSITION

Debtor filed an Opposition on October 2, 2018. Dckt. 36. Debtor asserts that the Vehicle is currently insured and provides the Declaration of Debtor and Debtor's insurance coverage summary for evidentiary support. See Declaration, Dckt. 36; Exhibit 1, Dckt. 37.

TRUSTEE'S RESPONSE

The Chapter 13 Trustee, David Cusick ("Trustee"), filed a Response to this Motion on September 27, 2018. Dekt. 32. Trustee provides an overview of amounts paid under the Confirmed Plan, how the Confirmed Plan treats Movant's claim, and of USE Credit Union's Proof of Claim, No. 4.

DISCUSSION

Debtor has demonstrated that the Vehicle is insured. Movant's sole ground for relief under 11 U.S.C. § 362 being failure to insure the Vehicle, the Motion is denied.

The court shall issue a minute order substantially in the following form holding that:

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law are stated in the Civil Minutes for the hearing.

The Motion for Relief from the Automatic Stay filed by USE Credit Unions ("Movant") having been presented to the court, and upon review of the pleadings, evidence, arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing,

IT IS ORDERED the Motion for Relief From Automatic Stay is denied without prejudice.
