

ADMISSION TO PRACTICE

Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 1001-1\(c\), admission to practice in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court of the Eastern District of California is governed by U.S. District Court Local Rule 180.

According to U.S. District Court Local Rule 180, each applicant for admission shall present to the Clerk of the U.S. District Court an affidavit petitioning for admission, stating both residence and office addresses, the Courts in which the applicant has been admitted to practice, the respective dates of admissions to those Courts, whether the applicant is active and in good standing in each, and whether the applicant has been or is being subjected to any disciplinary proceedings. Admission to practice forms are available from the U.S. District Court Clerk's Offices in Sacramento and Fresno. The fee for admission to practice is $200.00.
