

Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure Changes

Effective December 1, 2023

- Rule 3011 Unclaimed Funds in Cases Under Chapter 7, Subchapter V of Chapter 11, Chapter 12, and Chapter 13
- Rule 8003 Appeal as of Right – How Taken; Docketing the Appeal
- Rule 9006 Computing and Extending Time; Time for Motion Papers
- Rule 9038 Bankruptcy Rules Emergency

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE<sup>1</sup>

1       Rule 3011. Unclaimed Funds in Cases Under Chapter
2                   7, Subchapter V of Chapter 11, Chapter
3                   12, and Chapter 13<sup>2</sup>

4               (a)     The trustee shall file a list of all known names
5                   and addresses of the entities and the amounts which they are 6                   entitled to be paid from remaining property of the estate that 7                   is paid into court pursuant to § 347 of the Code.

8               (b)     On the court's website, the clerk must 9                   provide searchable access to information about funds
10                  deposited under § 347(a). The court may, for cause, limit
11                  access to information about funds in a specific case.

Committee Note

Rule 3011 is amended to require the clerk to provide searchable access (as by providing a link to the U.S. Bankruptcy Unclaimed Funds Locator) on the court's website to information about unclaimed funds deposited pursuant to § 347(a). The court may limit access to information about such funds in a specific case for cause, including, for example, if such access risks disclosing the identity of claimants whose privacy should be protected, or if the information about the unclaimed funds is so old as to be unreliable.

---

<sup>1</sup> New material is underlined.

<sup>2</sup> The title of Rule 3011 reflects amendments currently proposed to take effect on December 1, 2022, barring any contrary action by Congress.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE<sup>1</sup>

1      Rule 8003.      Appeal as of Right—How Taken;
2                  Docketing the Appeal

3                  (a)      FILING THE NOTICE OF APPEAL.

4                                * * * * *

5                  (3)      Contents. The notice of appeal

6                  must:

7                          (A)      conform substantially

8                          to the appropriate Official Form;

9                          (B)      be accompanied by

10                          the judgment,—or the appealable

11                          order,—or decree,—from which the 12                          appeal is taken or the part of it, being

13                          appealed; and

14                          (C)      be accompanied by 15                          the prescribed fee.

---

<sup>1</sup> New material is underlined; matter to be omitted is lined through.

16                         (4) Merger. The notice of appeal
17                         encompasses all orders that, for purposes of 18                         appeal, merge into the identified judgment or 19                         appealable order or decree. It is not 20                         necessary to identify those orders in the 21                         notice of appeal.

22                         (5) Final Judgment. The notice
23                         of appeal encompasses the final judgment,
24                         whether or not that judgment is set out in a 25                         separate document under Rule 7058, if the 26                         notice identifies:

27                             (A) an order that 28                         adjudicates all remaining claims and 29                         the rights and liabilities of all
30                         remaining parties; or

31                             (B) an order described in 32                         Rule 8002(b)(1).

33                             (6) Limited Appeal. An appellant
34       may identify only part of a judgment or 35       appealable order or decree by expressly
36       stating that the notice of appeal is so limited.
37       Without such an express statement, specific 38       identifications do not limit the scope of the 39       notice of appeal.

40                             (7) Impermissible Ground for
41       Dismissal. An appeal must not be dismissed
42       for failure to properly identify the judgment
43       or appealable order or decree if the notice of 44       appeal was filed after entry of the judgment
45       or appealable order or decree and identifies 46       an order that merged into that judgment or 47       appealable order or decree.

48                             (4)(8) Additional Copies. * * *

49                             * * * * *

Committee Note

Subdivision (a) is amended to conform to recent amendments to Fed. R. App. P. 3(c), which clarified that the designation of a particular interlocutory order in a notice of appeal does not prevent the appellate court from reviewing all orders that merged into the judgment or appealable order or decree. These amendments reflect that a notice of appeal is supposed to be a simple document that provides notice that a party is appealing and invokes the jurisdiction of the appellate court. It therefore must state who is appealing, what is being appealed, and to what court the appeal is being taken. It is the role of the briefs, not the notice of appeal, to focus the issues on appeal.

Subdivision (a)(3)(B) is amended in an effort to avoid the misconception that it is necessary or appropriate to identify each and every order of the bankruptcy court that the appellant may wish to challenge on appeal. It requires the attachment of “the judgment—or the appealable order or decree—from which the appeal is taken”—and the phrase “or the part of it” is deleted. In most cases, because of the merger principle, it is appropriate to identify and attach only the judgment or the appealable order or decree from which the appeal as of right is taken.

Subdivision (a)(4) now calls attention to the merger principle. The general merger rule can be stated simply: an appeal from a final judgment or appealable order or decree permits review of all rulings that led up to the judgment, order, or decree. Because this general rule is subject to some exceptions and complications, the amendment does not attempt to codify the merger principle but instead leaves its details to case law. The amendment does not change the principle established in Budinich v. Becton Dickinson & Co., 486 U.S. 196, 202-03 (1988), that “a decision on the merits is a ‘final decision’ . . . whether or not there remains for adjudication a request for attorney’s fees attributable to the case.”

Sometimes a party who is aggrieved by a final judgment will make a motion in the bankruptcy court instead of immediately filing a notice of appeal. Rule 8002(b)(1) permits a party who makes certain motions to await disposition of those motions before appealing. But some courts treat a notice of appeal that identifies only the order disposing of such a motion as limited to that order, rather than bringing the final judgment before the appellate court for review. To reduce the unintended loss of appellate rights in this situation, subdivision (a)(5) is added. This amendment does not alter the requirement of Rule 8002(b)(3) (requiring a notice of appeal or an amended notice of appeal if a party intends to challenge an order disposing of certain motions).

Subdivision (a)(6) is added to enable deliberate limitations of the notice of appeal. It allows an appellant to identify only part of a judgment or appealable order or decree by expressly stating that the notice of appeal is so limited. Without such an express statement, however, specific identifications do not limit the scope of the notice of appeal.

On occasion, a party may file a notice of appeal after a judgment or appealable order or decree but identify only a previously nonappealable order that merged into that judgment or appealable order or decree. To deal with this situation, subdivision (a)(7) is added to provide that an appeal must not be dismissed for failure to properly identify the judgment or appealable order or decree if the notice of appeal was filed after entry of the judgment or appealable order or decree and identifies an order that merged into the judgment, order, or decree from which the appeal is taken. In this situation, a court should act as if the notice had properly identified the judgment or appealable order or decree. In determining whether a notice of appeal was filed after the entry of judgment, Rules 8002(a)(2) and (b)(2) apply.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE<sup>1</sup>

1      Rule 9006. Computing and Extending Time; Time for
2      Motion Papers

3                (a)      COMPUTING TIME. The following rules
4      apply in computing any time period specified in these rules,
5      in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in any local rule or 6      court order, or in any statute that does not specify a method
7      of computing time.

8                                  * * * * *

9                (6)      “Legal Holiday” Defined. “Legal 10     holiday” means:

11    (A)      the day set aside by statute for 12     observing New Year’s Day, Martin Luther 13     King Jr.’s Birthday, Washington’s Birthday, 14     Memorial Day, Juneteenth National
15     Independence Day, Independence Day,

---

<sup>1</sup> New material is underlined.

16                   Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veterans' Day,
17                   Thanksgiving Day, or Christmas Day;
18                   (B)     any day declared a holiday by 19                   the President or Congress; and 20                   (C)     for periods that are measured
21                   after an event, any other day declared a 22                   holiday by the state where the district court is 23                   located. (In this rule, "state" includes the 24                   District of Columbia and any United States
25                   commonwealth or territory.)

26                   * * * * *

Committee Note

The amendment adds "Juneteenth National Independence Day" to the list of legal holidays. See Juneteenth National Independence Day Act, P.L. 117-17 (2021) (amending 5 U.S.C. § 6103(a)).

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE<sup>1</sup>

1      Rule 9038. Bankruptcy Rules Emergency

2            (a) CONDITIONS FOR AN EMERGENCY.

3        The Judicial Conference of the United States may declare a 4        Bankruptcy Rules emergency if it determines that 5        extraordinary circumstances relating to public health or 6        safety, or affecting physical or electronic access to a 7        bankruptcy court, substantially impair the court's ability to 8        perform its functions in compliance with these rules.

9            (b) DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

10            (1) Content. The declaration must:

11            (A) designate the bankruptcy
12            court or courts affected;
13            (B) state any restrictions on the 14            authority granted in (c); and

---

<sup>1</sup> New material is underlined.

15                   (C) be limited to a stated period of 16                   no more than 90 days.

17                   (2) Early Termination. The Judicial

18                   Conference may terminate a declaration for one or

19                   more bankruptcy courts before the termination date.

20                   (3) Additional Declarations. The 21                   Judicial Conference may issue additional

22                   declarations under this rule.

23                   (c) TOLLING AND EXTENDING TIME

24                   LIMITS.

25                   (1) In an Entire District or Division.

26                   When an emergency is in effect for a bankruptcy

27                   court, the chief bankruptcy judge may, for all cases

28                   and proceedings in the district or in a division:

29                   (A) order the extension or tolling

30                   of a Bankruptcy Rule, local rule, or order that

31                   requires or allows a court, a clerk, a party in

32                   interest, or the United States trustee, by a

33                 specified deadline, to commence a
34                 proceeding, file or send a document, hold or 35                 conclude a hearing, or take any other action,
36                 despite any other Bankruptcy Rule, local 37                 rule, or order; or

38                 (B) order that, when a Bankruptcy
39                 Rule, local rule, or order requires that an 40                 action be taken “promptly,” “forthwith,” 41                 “immediately,” or “without delay,” it be 42                 taken as soon as is practicable or by a date set
43                 by the court in a specific case or proceeding.

44                 (2) In a Specific Case or Proceeding.

45                 When an emergency is in effect for a bankruptcy
46                 court, a presiding judge may take the action
47                 described in (1) in a specific case or proceeding.

48                 (3) When an Extension or Tolling Ends.

49                 A period extended or tolled under (1) or (2)
50                 terminates on the later of:

51                         (A)     the last day of the time period

52                         as extended or tolled or 30 days after the

53                         emergency declaration terminates, whichever

54                         is earlier; or

55                         (B)     the last day of the time period

56                         originally required, imposed, or allowed by

57                         the relevant Bankruptcy Rule, local rule, or

58                         order that was extended or tolled.

59                         (4)     Further Extensions or Shortenings.

60                         A     presiding judge may lengthen or shorten an 61                         extension or tolling in a specific case or proceeding.

62                         The judge may do so only for good cause after notice

63                         and a hearing and only on the judge's own motion or

64                         on motion of a party in interest or the United States

65                         trustee.

66                         (5)     Exception. A time period imposed by 67                         statute may not be extended or tolled.

Committee Note

The rule is new. It provides authority to extend or toll the time limits in these rules during times of major emergencies affecting the bankruptcy courts. The continuing operation of the bankruptcy courts during the COVID-19 pandemic showed that the existing rules are flexible enough to accommodate remote proceedings, service by mail, and electronic transmission of documents. Nevertheless, it appeared that greater flexibility than Rule 9006(b) provides might be needed to allow the extension of certain time periods in specific cases or any extension on a district-wide basis in response to an emergency.

Emergency rule provisions have also been added to the Civil, Criminal, and Appellate Rules. Along with the Bankruptcy Rule, these rules have been made as uniform as possible. But each set of rules serves distinctive purposes, shaped by different origins, traditions, functions, and needs. Different provisions were compelled by these different purposes.

Subdivision (a) specifies the limited circumstances under which the authority conferred by this rule may be exercised. The Judicial Conference of the United States has the exclusive authority to declare a Bankruptcy Rules emergency, and it may do so only under extraordinary circumstances. Those circumstances must relate to public health or safety or affect physical or electronic access to a bankruptcy court. And, importantly, the court's ability to operate in compliance with the Bankruptcy Rules must be substantially impaired.

Under subdivision (b)(1), a Bankruptcy Rules emergency declaration must specify the bankruptcy courts to which it applies because, instead of being nationwide, an emergency might be limited to one area of the country or even to a particular state. The declaration must also specify a termination date that is no later than 90 days from the declaration’s issuance. Under subdivisions (b)(2) and (b)(3), however, that time period may be extended by the issuance of additional declarations or reduced by early termination if circumstances change. The declaration must also specify any limitations placed on the authority granted in subdivision (c) to modify time periods.

Subdivisions (c)(1) and (c)(2) grant the authority, during declared Bankruptcy Rules emergencies, to extend or toll deadlines to the chief bankruptcy judge of a district on a district- or division-wide basis or to the presiding judge in specific cases. Unless limited by the emergency declaration, this authority extends to all time periods in the rules that are not also imposed by statute. It also applies to directives to take quick action, such as rule provisions that require action to be taken “promptly,” “forthwith,” “immediately,” or “without delay.”

Subdivision (c)(3), which addresses the termination of extensions and tolling, provides a “soft landing” upon the termination of a Bankruptcy Rules emergency. It looks to three possible dates for a time period to expire. An extended or tolled time period will terminate either 30 days after the rules-emergency declaration terminates or when the original time period would have expired, whichever is later—unless the extension or tolling itself expires sooner than 30 days after the declaration’s termination. In that case, the extended expiration date will apply.

Subdivision (c)(4) allows fine tuning in individual cases of extensions of time or tollings that have been granted.

Subdivision (c)(5) excepts from the authority to extend time periods any time provision imposed by statute. The Bankruptcy Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2075, does not authorize the Bankruptcy Rules to supersede conflicting laws. Accordingly, a time limit in a rule that is a restatement of a deadline imposed by statute or an incorporation by reference of such a deadline may not be extended under this rule. However, if a statute merely incorporates by reference a time period imposed by a rule, that period may be extended.