DAY: TUESDAY

DATE: August 27, 2026

CALENDAR: 1:00 P.M. CHAPTER 13

Each matter on this calendar will have one of three possible designations: No Ruling, Tentative Ruling, or Final Ruling. These instructions apply to those designations.

No Ruling: All parties will need to appear at the hearing unless otherwise ordered.

Tentative Ruling: If a matter has been designated as a tentative ruling it will be called. The court may continue the hearing on the matter, set a briefing schedule, or enter other orders appropriate for efficient and proper resolution of the matter. The original moving or objecting party shall give notice of the continued hearing date and the deadlines. The minutes of the hearing will be the court's findings and conclusions.

The final disposition of the matter is set forth in the ruling and it will appear in the minutes. The final ruling may or may not finally adjudicate the matter. If it is finally adjudicated, the minutes constitute the court's findings and conclusions.

Orders: Unless the court specifies in the tentative or final ruling that it will issue an order, the prevailing party shall lodge an order within seven (7) days of the final hearing on the matter.

Honorable Christopher D. Jaime
Chief Bankruptcy Judge
Sacramento, California

1. 26-20302-B-13 ERIC BRITTON MOTION TO DISMISS CASE
 DPC-1 Douglas B. Jacobs 7-20-26 [24]

Final Ruling

The motion has been set for hearing on 28-days notice. Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). The failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Opposition was filed.

The court has determined that oral argument will not assist in the decision-making process or resolution of the motion. See Local Bankr. R. 9014-1(h), 1001-1(f). This matter will therefore be decided on the papers.

The court's decision is to continue the matter to November 24, 2026, at 1:00 p.m., by which time the Debtor must have cured the delinquency and, if not, the case will be dismissed on the Chapter 13 Trustee's ex parte application.

The Trustee moves to dismiss case on grounds that Debtor is delinquent in plan payments and will need to pay $15,066.20 in order to bring the plan current by the date of the hearing.

Debtor filed a response acknowledging that he fell behind on plan payments and states this was due to his water pump blowing up and requiring extensive repair work. This caused Debtor to miss three payments due under the plan. The water pump is now repaired. Debtor has made the July plan payment and states that he will be completely caught up on plan payments by November 2026. Debtor requests that the motion to dismiss case be denied.

Rather than deny the motion to dismiss case, the court will allow a continuance to the court's dismissal calendar on November 24, 2026, by which time the Debtor must be current on plan payments or the case will be dismissed on the Trustee's ex parte application.

The motion is ORDERED CONTINUED to November 24, 2026 at 1:00 p.m. for reasons stated in the minutes.

The court will issue an order.

The court's decision is to continue the motion to dismiss case to October 13, 2026, at 1:00 p.m.

The Chapter 13 Trustee moves to dismiss case on grounds that Debtor failed to file an amended plan and set it for hearing with notice to creditors. Furthermore, this case has been pending for 13 months without a confirmed plan resulting in prejudicial and undue delay.

Debtor filed a response stating that he has filed and set for hearing a third amended plan. Debtor contends that the delay in obtaining confirmation were not intended to prejudice creditors or cause unreasonable delay. A substantial portion of the difficulty arose from the Debtor's misunderstanding concerning when the ongoing JPMorgan Chase mortgage payment became part of the Chapter 13 plan payment. That misunderstanding resulted in both the Debtor and the Trustee making mortgage payments. The third amended plan now accounts for those payments and establishes clear treatment of the mortgage going forward. The confirmation hearing for the third amended plan is set for October 13, 2026.

Trustee filed a response requesting that the motion to dismiss be continued to October 13, 2026, and that the case be dismissed if the plan is not confirmable on that date.

The motion is ORDERED CONTINUED for reasons stated in the minutes.

The court will issue an order.

CONFIRMATION OF PLAN BY LILIAN
G. TSANG
7-21-26 [15]

Final Ruling

The initial Chapter 13 Plan filed May 31, 2026, is not confirmable and the objection is not one that may be resolved in the confirmation order. Nevertheless, because this is the initial Chapter 13 Plan, the procedure in Local Bankr. R. 3015-1(c)(4) applies.

The court's decision is to continue the hearing to September 1, 2026, at 1:00 p.m., conditionally sustain the objection, and deny confirmation of the plan.

First, Debtor will not be able to make all payments under the plan and comply with the plan. 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)(6). Schedule J filed on May 31, 2026 lists a monthly net income of $4,432.83. Debtor has failed to file an amended Schedule J evidencing the ability to make the proposed monthly plan payment of $4,637.00 per month for months 1 through 24. Until Debtor files an amended Schedule J, it cannot be determined if the Debtor is able to make the plan payment or if the plan is feasible

Second, Debtor is delinquent $4,637 with an additional plan payment of the same amount due August 2026.

The plan does not comply with 11 U.S.C. §§ 1322 and 1325(a). The objection is sustained and the plan is not confirmed.

Conditional Nature of this Ruling

Because the objection has been filed, set, and served under Local Bankruptcy Rules 3015-1(c)(4) and 9014-1(f)(2), any party in interest shall have until 5:00 p.m. on August 30, 2026, to file and serve a response to the objection(s). See Local Bankr. R. 3015-1(c)(4), 9014-1(f)(2)(C). Any response shall be served on the Chapter 13 Trustee, the Debtor, the Debtor's attorney, and/or the attorney for the objecting party by facsimile or email.

If no response is timely filed and served, the objection will be deemed sustained for the reasons stated hereinabove, this ruling will no longer be conditional and will become the court's final decision, and the continued hearing on September 1, 2026, at 1:00 p.m. will be vacated.

If a response is timely filed and served, the court will hear the objection on September 1, 2026, at 1:00 p.m.

The Chapter 13 Trustee moves to dismiss case on grounds that Debtor failed to file and set for hearing an amended plan and failed to provide declaration(s) from the third party who contributes to the Debtor's monthly income, if applicable.

Debtor filed an opposition stating that an amended plan was filed. A review of the court's docket shows that a first amended plan was filed and the confirmation hearing is set for September 8, 2026.

The Trustee filed a response stating that declaration(s) from the third party who contributes to the Debtor's monthly income must still be filed. While the court agrees, missing such declarations(s) at this time does not warrant dismissing the case since there is a pending confirmation hearing for the first amended plan and objections to confirmation can be raised at that point.

The motion has been set for hearing on 28-days notice. Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). The failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Opposition was filed. The court will address the merits of the motion at the hearing.

The court finds that Debtors have not cured a post-petition amount for January 1, 2026.

The Chapter 13 Trustee seeks an order determining whether the Debtors have cured all arrearages, if any, and paid all post-petition amounts required by the plan as of the date of this motion. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3002.1(g)(4).

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 3002.1(h), on motion of the debtor or trustee, after notice and hearing, the court shall determine whether a debtor has cured the default and paid all required post-petition amounts.

The Trustee and creditor U.S. Bank Trust National Association, not in its individual capacity but solely as owner trustee for RCAO Acquisition Trust, ("Creditor") provided a joint status report on August 20, 2026, stating that Debtors are current on all pre-petition arrears but are post-petition due in the amount of $11,844.93 for January 1, 2026.

The confirmed plan does not provide for the cure or payment of post-petition mortgage arrears. Accordingly, any post-petition arrears are not properly recoverable through the plan. Therefore, as to the plan administration, the balance of post-petition arrears to be cured through the plan is $0.00.

The motion is ORDERED GRANTED for reasons stated in the minutes.

The court will issue an order.
