LGT-2 Pro Se MOTION TO BAR DEBTOR FROM FUTURE FILINGS FOR A MINIMUM OF
TWO YEARS , MOTION FOR SANCTIONS
8-18-26 [26]

Final Ruling

This is sixth bankruptcy case that Chapter 13 debtor Terry Fasy ("Debtor") has filed in the last three years. All were filed under Chapter 13, four were filed pro se, and two were filed with legal representation. The cases filed with legal counsel were dismissed due to failure to make plan payments.

In the current Chapter 13 case, Debtor has failed to appear at the meeting of creditors, failed to file a credit counseling certificate, failed to provide the Chapter 13 Trustee with valid identification, tax returns, business questionnaire, bank statements, and profit and loss statements. Debtor has also failed to commence making plan payments and is delinquent $2,800 through July 2026. The Chapter 13 Trustee ("Trustee") requests that the case be dismissed with prejudice under § 349 due to bad faith multiple filings and that a 2-year bar from future filings be imposed.

Debtor filed a response stating he recognizes his history of filings and failure to fulfil his duties in this case, but states that there are substantial mitigating circumstances: his active cancer treatment, medical complications, reduced income, unaffordable proposed payment, and a decision to stop pursuing a plan he cannot afford. Debtor states he consents to prompt dismissal of his case and intends to address the Wells Fargo vehicle obligation outside of bankruptcy.

The court grants the motion to dismiss and in so doing finds that 11 U.S.C. § 109(g) (1) is applicable because Debtor has failed (and admits he has failed) to "appear before the court in proper prosecution of the case[.]" That means Debtor is BARRED from re-filing any single or joint case for a period of 180-days from the dismissal of this case. See 11 U.S.C. § 109(g).

The motion to dismiss is ORDERED GRANTED for the reason stated in the minutes.

The court will issue an order.

CONTINUED MOTION TO DISMISS
CASE
7-14-26 [71]

Final Ruling

The motion has been set for hearing on 28-days notice. Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1). The failure of the respondent and other parties in interest to file written opposition at least 14 days prior to the hearing as required by Local Bankruptcy Rule 9014-1(f)(1)(B) is considered to be the equivalent of a statement of nonopposition. Cf. Ghazali v. Moran, 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995). Opposition was filed.

The court has determined that oral argument will not assist in the decision-making process or resolution of the motion. See Local Bankr. R. 9014-1(h), 1001-1(f). This matter will therefore be decided on the papers.

The court's decision is to grant the motion to dismiss case.

The Chapter 13 Trustee moved to dismiss case on grounds that Debtors are delinquent on plan payments and have not filed and set for hearing an amended plan.

Debtors filed a response stating that an amended plan was filed and will resolve the issues raised by the Trustee. A motion to confirm was set for hearing on September 22, 2026, and denied.

Cause exists to dismiss this case. The motion is granted and the case is dismissed.

The motion is ORDERED GRANTED for reasons stated in the minutes.

The court will issue an order.

Final Ruling

The court's decision is to discharge the Order to Show Cause and no sanctions are imposed.

The Order to Show Cause was issued due to Debtor's failure to file the Disclosure of Compensation of Attorney for Debtor.

Debtor filed a response acknowledging the error and states that the deadline for filing the document was inadvertently miscalendared. Upon discovering the error, Debtor's counsel promptly filed the required form.

The order to show cause is ORDERED DISCHARGED for reasons stated in the minutes.

The motion is therefore dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 41(a)(2) and Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9014 and 7041. The case will proceed in this court.

The motion is ORDERED DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE for reasons stated in the minutes.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE - FAILURE
TO PAY FEES
8-31-26 [39]

Final Ruling

The Order to Show Cause will be discharged and the case will remain pending but the court will modify the terms of its order permitting the Debtor to pay the filing fee in installments.

The court granted the Debtor permission to pay the filing fee in installments. The Debtor failed to pay the $57.00 installment when due on August 25, 2026. While the delinquent installment was paid on September 1, 2026, the fact remains that the court was required to issue an order to show cause to compel the payment. Therefore, as a sanction for the late payment, the court will modify its prior order allowing installment payments to provide that if a future installment is not received by its due date, the case will be dismissed without further notice or hearing.

The order to show cause is ORDERED DISCHARGED for reasons stated in the minutes and the case SHALL REMAIN PENDING.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if a future installment is not received by its due date, the case will be dismissed without further notice or hearing.

The court will issue an order.

The court has determined that oral argument will not assist in the decision-making process or resolution of the motion. See Local Bankr. R. 9014-1(h), 1001-1(f). This matter will therefore be decided on the papers.

The court's decision is to deny the motion do dismiss case.

The Chapter 13 Trustee moves to dismiss case on grounds that Debtor has not provided evidence of the non-requirement to file 2025 taxes. The Internal Revenue Service and Franchise Tax Board have each filed proofs of claim that showed secured and priority debts owed, and neither creditor has amended their claims to reflect the non-requirement status of the 2025 tax year.

Debtor filed a response stating that no return is required to be filed for tax year 2025 as stated in the Declaration of Natali A. Ron evidencing communication between Debtor's attorney and counsel for the IRS.

Cause does not exist to dismiss this case. The motion is denied and the case is not dismissed.
